Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your e-mail of 12 February requesting the following information:

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The total staff cost for your Department's Communications Directorate in 2016-17, including temporary staff and directly associated costs such as pension contributions

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that all the information in scope of your request is held.

The total staff costs for financial year 2016/17, including pay, National Insurance contributions, and pension contributions, for the Directorate of Defence Communications (DDC) was £7,324,614.27.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

DDC Secretariat Parliamentary
