Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your e-mail of 4 September 2018 requesting the following information:

If it helps clarity of what I am seeking, could you tell me how many YouTube, Twitter and Facebook accounts have been registered with Army Media and Communications, and their RAF, RN and MOD equivalents?

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). A search has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD), and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held by the MOD.

Please find below the total number of registered social media accounts.

Facebook: 472
Twitter: 240
YouTube: 8

Please note that these numbers are always changing however with the closure of old, redundant accounts and the opening of new organisation accounts when it is relevant and appropriate to do so.

You may find it useful to know that the main MOD social media accounts can be found on Gov.uk here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ministry-of-defence/about/social-media-use>

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website www.ico.org.uk

Yours sincerely,

DDC Secretariat Parliamentary
