

Investigation Number	Decision	Summary Reasons for Decision	Date of Decision
W29	No Inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	13 June 2019
W30	No Inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the incident is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would involve.	13 June 2019
W36	No Inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	13 June 2019
W42	No Inquiry	Notwithstanding the extensive enquiries undertaken by the IHAT/SPLI, there is no evidence to support the allegation that these incidents were attributable to UK Forces. Therefore, these do not engage the UK's ECHR obligations and there is no investigative obligation under Article 3.	13 June 2019

W43	No Inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the witness was detained by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.
W45	No Inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that the wounds sustained were caused by a grenade used in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. The medical records do not corroborate the assertion that the complainant was shot. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	13 June 2019
W46	No Inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR. Video evidence contradicts the witness account of events and injuries sustained.	13 June 2019
W52	No Inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR. The medical evidence is inconsistent with the witness account.	13 June 2019
W53	No Inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR. There is no evidence to support the witness account.	13 June 2019
W56	No Inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a	13 June 2019 violation of Article 3 ECHR.

W61	No Inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	13 June 2019