

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNAL

Claimant Mr JD Amaglo

Respondent Encor Group UK Plc and others

JUDGMENT

The Claimant's application dated 12 June 2019 for reconsideration of the Interim Relief judgment sent to the parties on 4 April 2019 is refused.

REASONS

1. There is no reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked.
2. Your opportunity to highlight documents from the bundle in support of your case was at the hearing and to allow that now, in the absence of the Respondent, would amount to a "second bite of the cherry" and be unfair.
3. Further, simply referring the tribunal to documents containing potential disclosures does not deal with the question of whether there was a causal link between such disclosures (assuming they are qualifying disclosures) and the detriments relied upon.
4. I am unable to determine from the information provided whether the final tribunal is likely to conclude that the disclosures were the reason or principal reason for dismissal.
5. For these reasons, I find that the application does not disclose any arguable basis to reconsider the judgment.

Employment Judge Balogun
Date: 18 June 2019