

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant
Mr Conleth Quinn

v

Respondent
POD Staffing Ltd

PRELIMINARY HEARING

Heard at: London Central

On: 12 July 2019

Before: Employment Judge Paul Stewart

Appearances

For the Claimant: in person

For the Respondent: Mr Mark Humphreys

JUDGMENT

1. There having been no material compliance with the “unless order” of 20 June 2019, this case is struck out.
2. The Claimant is ordered to pay to the Respondent the sum of £250 towards the costs wasted in attending this Preliminary Hearing.
3. The Claimant is reminded about the relevant legal provisions, in particular, Rule 38(2) as set out by counsel for the Respondent in his note for this Preliminary Hearing at paragraph 7. Any application he might make to set aside this order stands a better chance of success if he ensures that he has complied with the “unless order” of 20 June 2019 beforehand.
