JUDGMENT

The Judgment of the Tribunal was that: -

1. the claims for personal injury and for breach of contract/notice pay were dismissed on withdrawal forthwith.
2. The Claimant's unfair dismissal complaint was unaffected by this Judgment.

REASONS

1. The Claimant confirmed that he was not bringing a free-standing personal injury claim accepting that the Tribunal had no power to consider such a claim. That claim was therefore withdrawn by the Claimant and dismissed by the Tribunal forthwith.

2. The Claimant also informed the Tribunal that he had been paid notice money in lieu (instead). Therefore, there was no notice pay claim, and it was also dismissed on withdrawal forthwith.
