JUDGMENT

Rule 21 of the Employment Tribunal Rules of Procedure 2013

The judgment of the Employment Tribunal is that

1. The claim so far as directed at the first respondent is dismissed.
2. The claim of unlawful deduction of wages succeeds. The second respondent shall pay to the claimant the sum of Two Hundred and Sixty One Pounds Ninety Nine Pence (£261.99) in respect thereof.

REASONS

1. The claim was initially directed at the first respondent which has no legal personality. Following a hearing on 30 August 2019 it was directed that the claim be served on the second respondent as they were added as a party. The claim was served on the second respondent on 6 September 2019.
2. The second respondent has not lodged a response within the statutory period.
3. I consider that on the available material a determination can be made of the claim in terms of rule 21.
