Dear [REDACTED],

RE: Request for Information – RFI2610

Thank you for your recent email, which was processed under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). For clarification, you requested the following information:

*I am a reporter at the Worksop Guardian and I am trying to find out what is happening with the old Worksop magistrates court building in Potter Street, Worksop.
The MoJ has referred me to Homes England.*

Are you able to send me any information you have about this please.

Response

We are able to confirm that we do not hold the information that falls within the scope of your request.

Advice and Assistance

We have a duty to provide advice and assistance in accordance with Section 16 of the FOIA in order to comply with this duty we understand that our communications team has issued the following statement.

‘Homes England are due to meet with the Local Authority to discuss a strategy for bringing forward reuse of the building through incorporating this into a wider redevelopment opportunity’.

We are therefore able to advise that you may wish to submit your request at a date in the future.

Right to Appeal

If you are not happy with the information that has been provided or the way in which your request has been handled you may request an internal review by writing to;

The Information Access Team
Windsor House
50 Victoria Street
London
SW1H 0TL

You may also complain to the Information Commissioner however, the Information Commissioner does usually expect the internal review procedure to be exhausted in the first instance.
