Dear [REDACTED],

RE: Request for Information – RFI2683

Thank you for your recent email, which was processed under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). For clarification, you requested the following information:

*Any letter sent to Homes England from Amanda Milling MP or
Any letter sent to Amanda Milling MP from Homes England*

In the last 12 months.

Response

I am able to confirm that Homes England does not hold the information detailed in your request. This is because there is no legal or business reason for Homes England to do so.

In order to conclude that the information is not held, we have searched with our Central Governance, Communications, and Midlands teams who would have the requested information if held. We have also searched our enquiries database with no results returned.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty under section 1(1) is only to provide the recorded information held.

The full text of section 1 in the legislation can be found here:

<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2000/36/section/1>

Advice and Assistance

We have a duty to provide advice and assistance in accordance with Section 16 of the FOIA. To comply with this duty we can advise you that you may wish to contact the MP directly (<https://www.amandamilling.com/contact>).

Right to Appeal

If you are not happy with the information that has been provided or the way in which your request has been handled you may request an internal review by writing to;
