

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

BETWEEN

Claimant

and

Respondent

Mr A Wyn-Jones

The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis

HELD AT: London South
Before: Employment Judge Freer

ON: 07 February 2020

Appearances

For the Claimant: In person

For the Respondent: Mr J Crozier, Counsel

JUDGMENT FROM A PRELIMINARY HEARING

It is the judgment of the Tribunal that:

1. The Claimant's reasonable adjustment claim is capable of forming a continuing act with the later and in time discrimination arising from disability claim;
2. In any event, it is just and equitable for the Tribunal to extend the time for the Claimant to bring his claim of a failure to provide reasonable adjustments such that the Tribunal has jurisdiction to consider it.

Employment Judge Freer
Date: 03 March 2020