

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

CLAIMANT

RESPONDENT

MISS W LEWIS

V THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR JUSTICE

HELD AT: CARDIFF

ON: 23 MARCH 2020

EMPLOYMENT JUDGE: S DAVIES (SITTING ALONE)

JUDGMENT ON REMEDY BY CONSENT

1. This was a hearing on the papers consented to by the parties. The form of remote hearing was P: paper determination which is not provisional. A face to face hearing was not held because some issues on remedy could be determined by consent. The documents that I was referred to were emails from the parties dated 11 and 12 March 2020.
2. The parties agreed sums pending the re-listing of the Remedy Hearing. The following claims for compensation are upheld:

a. Basic Award	£9,580
b. Injury to Feeling (interim payment)	£8,800

3. The case will proceed to Remedy Hearing in due course.
