

Contracts for Difference: Stakeholder Bulletin

11 October 2019

Allocation Round 3 Results Table – Minor correction to Table B

Today, the Department for Business, Energy & Industry Strategy has published a correction to Table B (Estimated notional Monetary Budget impact) in the Contracts for Difference Allocation Round 3: Results document.

This is due to a minor administrative error in the calculations where the figures for 2025/26 and 2026/27 underestimated the negative notional budgetary impact.

In addition prices for tables B, C and D were previously described as 2011/12 prices – this has now been corrected to say 2012 prices.

These revisions have no impact on any of the rest of the published results figures.

The revised figures have been published here on gov.uk.
