Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 3 December 2019 requesting the following information:

"I am researching British Army armoured vehicles of the 1970s and 1980s and am seeking the manuals associated with the installation of the Clansman Radios in the Combat Vehicle Reconnaissance (Tracked) CVR(T) which I have not located in my searches."

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that some information in scope of your request is held. Please find attached a copy of the manual entitled "Command Control Communication and Information (C3I) Installations in Combat Vehicle Reconnaissance (Tracked) Sabre". I hope that this will be of assistance to you.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.gov.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

Defence Digital Secretariat
