Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 13 January 2020 requesting the following information:

"I am researching British Army armoured vehicles of the 1970s and 1980s and am seeking the manuals associated with the installation of the Clansman Radios in the Scorpion Combat Vehicle Reconnaissance (Tracked) CVR(T) which I have not located in my searches. A previous FOI resulted in the information for the Sabre from September 1993 but I am looking for the earlier Scorpion installation."

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that some information in scope of your request is held. The documentation relating to the installation of the Clansman Radios in the Scorpion Combat Vehicle Reconnaissance (Tracked) that we have managed to locate can be found enclosed with this letter. We hope that this information will be of assistance to you with your research.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.
