We refer to your email of 20 March 2020 requesting that the CMA consents to derogations from the Interim Order of 26 November 2019 (which replaces the Initial Enforcement Order of 17 May 2019). The terms defined in the Interim Order have the same meaning in this letter.

After due consideration of your requests for derogations from the Interim Order, based on the information received from you and in the particular circumstances of this case, Pentland may carry out the following actions, in respect of the specified paragraphs of the Interim Order listed below.

Paragraphs 5 [redacted] of the Interim Order

The CMA understands that it is necessary for Pentland to take [certain actions] [redacted] in light of the COVID-19 pandemic [redacted].

The CMA grants this derogation under paragraphs 5 [redacted] of the Interim Order subject to the following conditions:

- a) [redacted]
- b) this derogation will expire on 5pm, 11 May 2020, unless the CMA grants a written extension;
- c) [redacted]

- e) this derogation only applies to Pentland and the Pentland business, and for the avoidance of doubt, does not apply to JD Sports, the JD Sports business, Footasylum of the Footasylum business (as defined in the Interim Order); and
- f) this derogation is granted on the basis that this does not relate to the integration of the JD Sports business and Footasylum business into any Pentland business and also does not carry the risk of pre-emptive action.

Paragraph 10 of the Interim Order

The CMA understands that [REDACTED].

The CMA grants a derogation amending Pentland's obligations under paragraph 10 of the Interim Order such that Pentland is permitted to limit the scope of its reporting obligations under paragraph 10 of the Interim Order only to material developments relating to the JD Sports business and the Footasylum business.

The CMA grants this derogation on a temporary basis and this derogation will expire on 5pm, 11 May 2020, unless the CMA grants a written extension.
