Dear [REDACTED]

RE: Request for Information – RFI2946

Thank you for your recent email, which was processed under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). For clarification, you requested the following information:

please may i request an up to date list of supplier, subcontractors, and consultants that have or will be involved with the development of Robin Hood Gardens and the surrounding areas. Work will include the alterations and demolition of existing buildings, site clearance and ground works and redevelopment to provide up to 1,700 residential units (up to 191,510sqm) up to 1,710 sqm retail space (class A1-A5), up to 900 sqm business space (B1), up to 500 sqm community space (D1), a new school (4,500 sqm), a replacement mosque (1,200 sqm), an energy centre (750 sqm), associated plant and servicing, provision of open space, landscaping work and ancillary drainage, car parking (up to 340 spaces in designated surface, podium, semi basement and basement plus on street) and alterations to and creation of new vehicular and pedestrian access routes. Associated work will include infrastructure, enabling works, sewer system, access roads and landscaping. Scheme also includes Extraction Ventilation.

Response

I am able to confirm that Homes England does not hold the information detailed in your request. This is because there is no legal or business reason for Homes England to do so.

In order to conclude that the information is not held, we have searched with our Estates Regeneration team who would have the requested information if held.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty under section 1(1) is only to provide the recorded information held.
