

THE SABRE CORPORATION AND FARELOGIX MERGER INQUIRY ORDER 2020

Explanatory Note

This note is not a part of the Order

Introduction

1. On 2 September 2019, the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA), exercising its powers under section 33 of the Enterprise Act 2002 (the Act) referred the anticipated acquisition by Sabre Corporation (Sabre) of Farelogix Inc (Farelogix) for further investigation and report by a group of CMA panel members.
2. The CMA published 'Anticipated acquisition by Sabre Corporation of Farelogix Inc, Final report' (the Report) on 9 April 2020. In the Report, the CMA decided, in accordance with section 36 of the Act, that:
  - (a) a relevant merger situation would be created as a result of the merger;
  - (b) the creation of that situation may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition (SLC) within the following markets:
    - (i) in the supply of merchandising solutions to airlines on a worldwide basis including in the UK.
    - (ii) in the supply of distribution solutions to airlines on a worldwide basis including in the UK.
  - (c) the CMA should take action for the purpose of remedying, mitigating or preventing the SLCs or any adverse effect which has resulted from, or may be expected to result from, each SLC; and
  - (d) the prohibition of the merger would be the only effective and proportionate remedy to the SLCs and any adverse effects which have resulted from, or may be expected to result from, each SLC.

3. The CMA published a notice on 12 May 2020 of its intention to make an order to remedy the adverse effects on competition that it had identified. The CMA did not receive any representations on that notice.
4. On the making of this order (the Order) on 19 June 2020 the reference is finally determined.
5. A review can be sought in relation to the Order under section 120 of the Act.

Possible consequences of not complying with the Order

6. Section 94 of the Act places a duty on any person to whom this Order applies to comply with it. Any person who suffers loss or damage due to a breach of this duty may bring an action before the courts.
7. Section 94 of the Act also provides that the CMA can seek to enforce the Order by civil proceedings for an injunction or for any other appropriate relief or remedy.
8. The CMA has power under the Order to give directions, including directions to a person in their capacity as an office holder, for the purpose of carrying out, or ensuring compliance with, the Order.
9. Section 87 of the Act provides that, if there is a failure to comply with a direction under the Order, the CMA can seek to enforce the direction in court and may recover the costs or expenses of such enforcement.

Review of this Order

10. The CMA has a duty under section 92 of the Act to monitor the operation of the Order. This includes a duty to consider, from time to time, whether the Order should be varied or revoked in the light of a change of circumstances.

Status of this explanatory note

11. Nothing in this explanatory note is legally binding. In the event of a conflict between this explanatory note and any provision of the Order, the Order shall prevail.

Structure of the Order

12. The Order contains 25 Articles.
  - General provisions (Articles 1 to 11), which provide the title of the Order (Article 1), the date it comes into force and ceases to have effect

(Articles 2 and 3), the scope of the Order (Articles 4 and 5) and interpretation (Articles 6 to 11) (which also apply to terms used in this explanatory note).

- The prohibition (Articles 12 to 14), which provides Sabre and Farelogix must not merge within the Prohibition Period of ten years from the date of the Order.
- Compliance provisions including, provision of information to the CMA (articles 15 to 18), the CMA's power to issue directions (Articles 19 to 21), and consequential provisions on severability and governing law (Articles 22 to 25).

13. This explanatory note deals with each of the articles in the Order.

Articles 1 to 11 – Title, commencement, application and interpretation

14. The Commencement Date for the Order is the date on which it is made, 19 June 2020. The Order ceases to have effect on 19 June 2030.
15. The Order applies to Sabre and Farelogix and the Group of Interconnected Bodies Corporate to which each of them belong, and its purpose is to give effect to the Report.

Articles 12 to 14 – Prohibition on merger

16. Article 12 provides that Sabre may not acquire an Interest in Farelogix or any entity holding an Interest in Farelogix for ten years, with an Interest defined to mean the conferring of control within the meaning of section 26 of the Act. This also applies to each of the entities within the Sabre corporate group.
17. As an exception to the general prohibition, the Order provides that the CMA may grant its written consent for a transaction between Sabre and Farelogix which would otherwise result in the creation of a relevant merger situation. This provision permitting the CMA's consent to be sought in relation to a particular proposed transaction, is without prejudice to the right to request the CMA to vary or revoke the Order on the basis that there has been a change of circumstances as described in paragraph 10 of this explanatory note, and the CMA's standard merger control processes.
18. Article 13 makes the same provision for Farelogix in respect of Sabre. This also applies to each of the entities within the Farelogix corporate group.
19. Article 14 makes provision that requires Sabre and Farelogix to ensure that their Subsidiaries comply with the terms of the Order.

Articles 15 to 18 – Provision of Information to the CMA

20. Article 15 requires any person to whom the Order applies to provide information so the CMA can monitor compliance with and the effectiveness of the Order and fulfil its functions.
21. Article 16 requires the production of records and provision of information in person to assist in the discharge of the CMA's functions in relation to the Order.
22. Article 17 requires the CMA to be informed immediately if a person to whom the Order applies suspects that the Order is likely to be, has or might have been breached.
23. Article 18 provides that the CMA may publish information received in connection with the Order in compliance with Part 9 of the Act.

Articles 19 to 21 – Powers of Direction

24. Articles 19 to 21 provides that the CMA may give written directions so as to carry out or ensure compliance with the Order.

Article 22 – Severability

25. Article 22 provides that the remaining provisions of the Order shall survive if some become invalid or contrary to law.

Articles 23 to 25 – Governing law

26. Article provides that the Order and contractual obligations connected with the Order are governed by English law and that any dispute connected with the Order is to be heard in the courts of England and Wales.
