You asked for information on the number of 'gender neutral' toilets in the department's properties in 2013-14 and 2018-19. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Office of the Secretary of State for Wales has two offices, one in London (owned) and one in Cardiff (space rented from a private landlord). There were 3 gender neutral toilets available in our London office and 5 in our Cardiff office in both 2013-14 and 2018-19. The Office did not create any gender-neutral toilets between 2013-14 to 2018-19.
