You requested information on the total amount spent by the Office on implementing/managing the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) over the last three financial years, broken down by year. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Office of the Secretary of State for Wales has implemented and managed GDPR without incurring expenditure directly. For example, the Office has used civil service-wide information and training to provide staff with GDPR knowledge and skills at no direct cost to the Office.
