You asked for information relating to training at the Office of the Secretary of State for Wales for 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Office of the Secretary of State for Wales is not a training provider, therefore no staff are designated to run training programmes. The Office is committed to ensuring that all staff undertake learning that meets the needs of the business, develops the skills they need to do their job and furthers their own career development.

The Office of the Secretary of State for Wales is not an employer in its own right. The Department follows Ministry of Justice (MoJ) policies including their Corporate charity policy and has access to their wellbeing and support network services. As the Department does not hold this information, you may therefore wish to refer your request to MoJ.
