E. Is the appeal in time?

Yes – go to section F

No – Read below

An appeal must be brought before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date the person was notified by Social Care Wales of the decision. If you know your appeal is late, or you are not sure if it will be received in time, you must apply for an extension of time.

Explain why your appeal is late in the box below. The tribunal may allow an appeal to be made to it after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date the person was notified by Social Care Wales of the decision. It may do so if it is satisfied that there is a good reason for the failure to appeal before the end of that period (and for any delay in applying for permission to appeal out of time).

F. Details of appeal

I wish to appeal against the decision of Social Care Wales
(tick as appropriate):

- Under regulation 13(2) of the General Systems Regulations as to whether a person is providing services as a social worker in the United Kingdom or as a social care manager in the United Kingdom on a temporary and occasional basis,
- Under Part 3 of those Regulations in respect of an aptitude test, or period of adaptation, in connection with a person's becoming permitted, by virtue of that Part, to have access to, and to pursue, the profession of social worker or social care manager in the United Kingdom, or
- Under regulation 67 of those Regulations to send an alert about a person.
