(Background voice): Start

(Interviewee): This is where the agricultural land area was, it was green and full of plants, and it was (Unclear voice), which was full of grasses and bushes as animal food. This area was green.

(Background voice): Was it here where the soldier approached you?

(Interviewee): At first, we were standing here; then the soldier had appeared suddenly, here, in this space (wind blowing). This area was green and planted.

(Background voice): (Unclear due to wind blowing)

(Interviewee): We started walking this distance, towards his group that we were going to. (Stopped)

(Background voice): Walk, retrace your steps, walk

(Walking silently)

(Interviewee): This is the route that we walked along, Saad, the soldier and I. In this way, towards the river. Saad was in this side (pointing to the left) and I was in this side (pointing to the right).

(Walking silently)

This road (Unclear sound) to the group, and he was approaching his group gradually. Here, there were people, families were present.

(Background voice): Were these buildings erected at the time of the incident?

(Interviewee): The same houses, the same place, but the population increased slightly. Here, there were caravans (unclear sound) the building.

The same location has not been changed, (voice in the background is not clear) Huh! No, the whole of this region was green (pointing to the right), but now have become with houses.

(Background voice): (Voice in the background is not clear)

(Walking silently)

(Interviewee): This road (pointing straight while walking) (unclear sound) on the way to the river. The soldier was behind us, Saad was in this side (pointing to the left) and I was in this side (pointing to the right).

(Walking silently)

Then, we started turning into this road (pointing to the left).

(Walking silently)

Yes, this building was here (pointing to the right), this building is a station. Here (pointing to right), there were buildings. Next to the caravan, this metal, there was a caravan, so, he stopped us for a short period of time, began to fear that Saad will escape, began to warn him, began to threaten him by directing the gun to his back; fearing that he may escape, he started getting worried of Saad, and started pushing him by the gun in order to prevent him from escaping until he will get to his group. His group was behind the hangar (pointing to the left). This hangar was with a roof, it was built and prepared, so, we turned around it (pointing to the left).

(Walking silently)

There was a built caravan here (pointing to the left). He took us straight along this road, and we began to walk, considering this road was a dead end. The road was in this direction (pointing to the left). We had to go from here (pointing to the left) (unclear voice).

(Background voice): So, he took you from this side and crossed over from here?

(Interviewee): Yes, from here, along the bank of the river, (unclear voice).

(Call out) Hey Haider! (Waving with his hand) Come.

(Walking silently)

(Voices are not clear).

Until we got to his group, his group were standing here (pointing to the left). His group was close to the water station, this is the water station, and here, there was Cannon 57. Here the water platform, and here the water station (pointing to the left). He stopped us here, close to the... close to the... (Pointing to the left) and he started, here (walking to the left side) (Unclear & distant sound) Here (pointing underneath), and he sought the assistance of... and he started thinking of how to talk to us, so, he asked the fisherman to talk to us...

(Background voice): Where did the fisherman came from?

(Interviewee): The fisherman came from this direction (pointing to the right), (voice is unclear, wind blowing) He came and talked to us, Saad was on this side (pointing to the left). The soldiers were standing there (pointing to the far left corner), and the armoured vehicle was close to the water station. So, he began talking to us, and made us to sit, we were sitting, and he began talking to us, and once the fisherman finished speaking to us, he returned to his place (pointing to the right), he said, walk straight to the front, we walked up to the far edge of the building, (voice is unclear) so he started talking to us and became angry, we did not know (voice is unclear). Finally, he became angry, and we were at the far end of the edge, and he pushed, I fell from this side (pointing to the right) and I crossed, I crossed (pointing to the right) I got to this edge, close to the land. From here, (Walking to the right) (voice is unclear).

There was a cannon here, close to the cannon. The cannon was here. In this direction. That direction (pointing to the left) I crossed this distance only, from the edge of the steps until this edge, and remained on the land spot (pointing underneath, to the right), they took me out of the water and I remained on the land spot.
