

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Miss A Fournadjieva

Respondent (1): Ms S Hanks

Respondent (2): Mr L Collins

JUDGMENT

The complaint for race discrimination against the first respondent is dismissed following a withdrawal by the claimant. There are no other claims against the first respondent so the proceedings against the first respondent are therefore dismissed.

The complaint for race discrimination against the second respondent is dismissed following a withdrawal by the claimant. The claim for notice pay remains current. The claimant accepts that this should be brought against Maxxima Limited, instead of the second respondent. There are no other claims against the second respondent so the proceedings against the second respondent are therefore dismissed.

The tribunal orders that Maxxima Limited is added as a third respondent in relation to a claim for notice pay.
