Judgment

The Respondent must pay the Claimant £4,193.33 by 14/10/2020

Reasons

1. I heard received representations on behalf of the Claimant and have read various documents I was sent by the Claimant including a skeleton argument.
2. The Claimant was employed as a chef from 1/2/2020 at the rate of £11 per hour
3. The business closed on 23/3/2020 but the Claimants employment was not ended until 5/6/2020 when he resigned
4. He was not paid but should have been paid the following ; Wages from 01/03/2020 to 03/06/2020 £3,389.37 net of Tax; 2 weeks notice. £521.44 net of tax ; Holiday Pay – 7 days (gross) £282.52; Total £4,193.33

The hearing took place over CVP. The tribunal considered it as just and equitable to conduct the hearing in this way. In accordance with Rule 46, the tribunal ensured that members of the public could attend and observe the hearing. This was done via a notice published on Courtserve.net. From a technical perspective, there were no difficulties. No requests were made by any members of the public to inspect any witness statements or for any other written materials before the tribunal. The participants were told that it was an offence to record the proceedings.
