BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF JOURNALISTS
INDEPENDENT AUDITORS REPORT TO THE MEMBERS
OF BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF JOURNALISTS

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of British Association of Journalists (the 'association') for the year ended 31 December 2019 on pages seven to eleven. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Section 1A "Small Entities" of the Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland". The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the association's affairs as at 31 December 2019 and of its transactions for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the association in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material uncertainty related to going concern

We draw attention to the accounting policy and note 6 in the financial statements, which indicates the situation relating to the material uncertainty in relation to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic that the overall economy and the association are currently facing. The duration and impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as the effectiveness of government and central bank responses, remains unclear of at this time. It is not possible to reliably estimate the duration and severity of these consequences, as well as their impact on the economy as a whole and on the financial position and results of the association for future periods. This indicates that a material uncertainty exists that may have an impact on the association's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF JOURNALISTSINDEPENDENT AUDITORS REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF JOURNALISTS*Other information

The members are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information in the Report of the National Executive Committee, but does not include the financial statements and our Report of the Auditors thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1992 to report to you if, in our opinion:

- proper accounting records have not been kept;
- a satisfactory system of control over its accounting records, cash holdings and receipts and remittances has not been maintained; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns

Respective responsibilities of the National Executive Committee

The National Executive Committee is responsible for preparing the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

In preparing the financial statements, the members are responsible for assessing the association's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the members either intend to cease operations or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

We have been appointed as auditor under section 33 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1992 and report in accordance with section 36 of that Act.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a Report of the Auditors that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our Report of the Auditors.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the association's members, as a body. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the association's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the association and the association's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.
