

Fire and Rescue Workforce Statistics 2019/20

Headcount of staff employed by FRAs in England, as at 31 March 2020

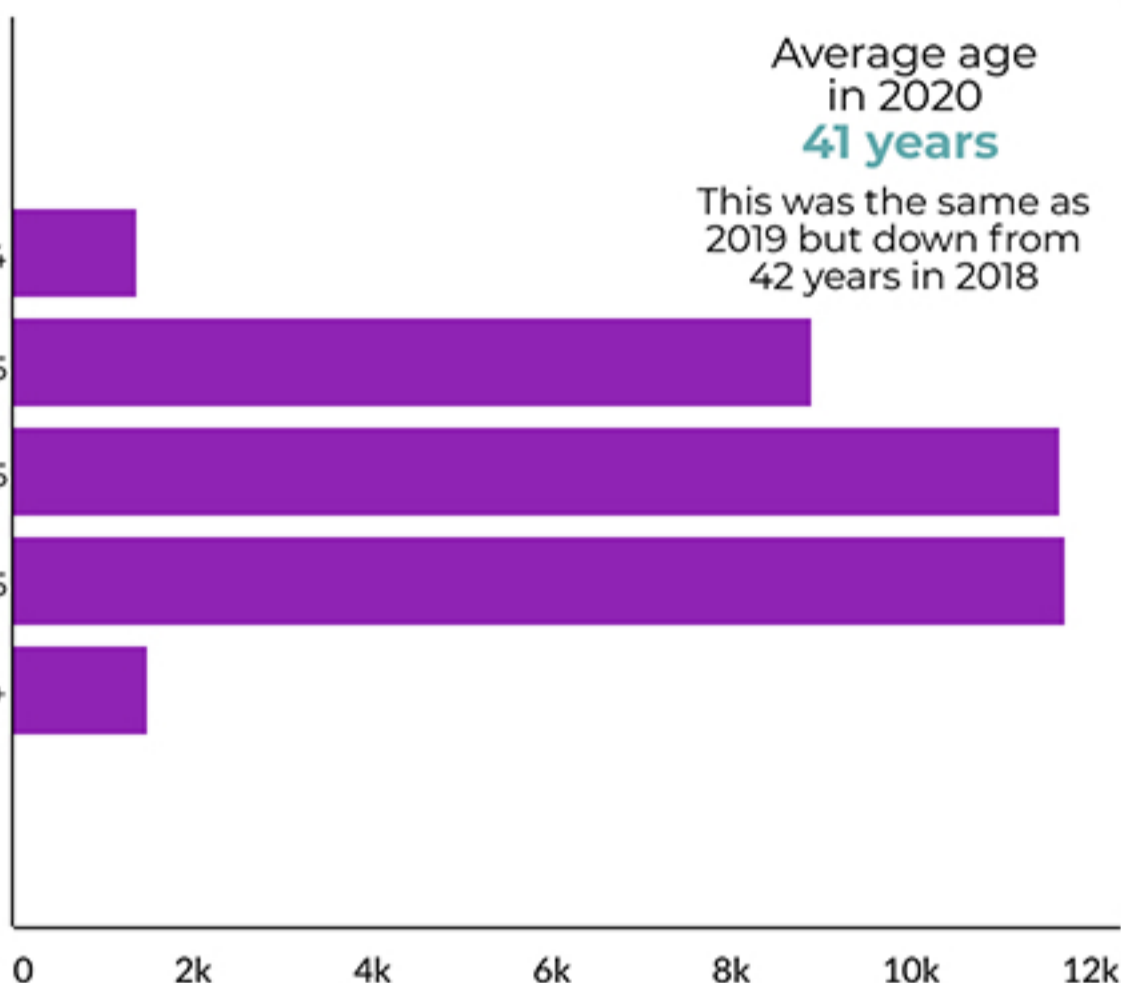

Total staff employed (Full time equivalent) in England, 2010 to 2020

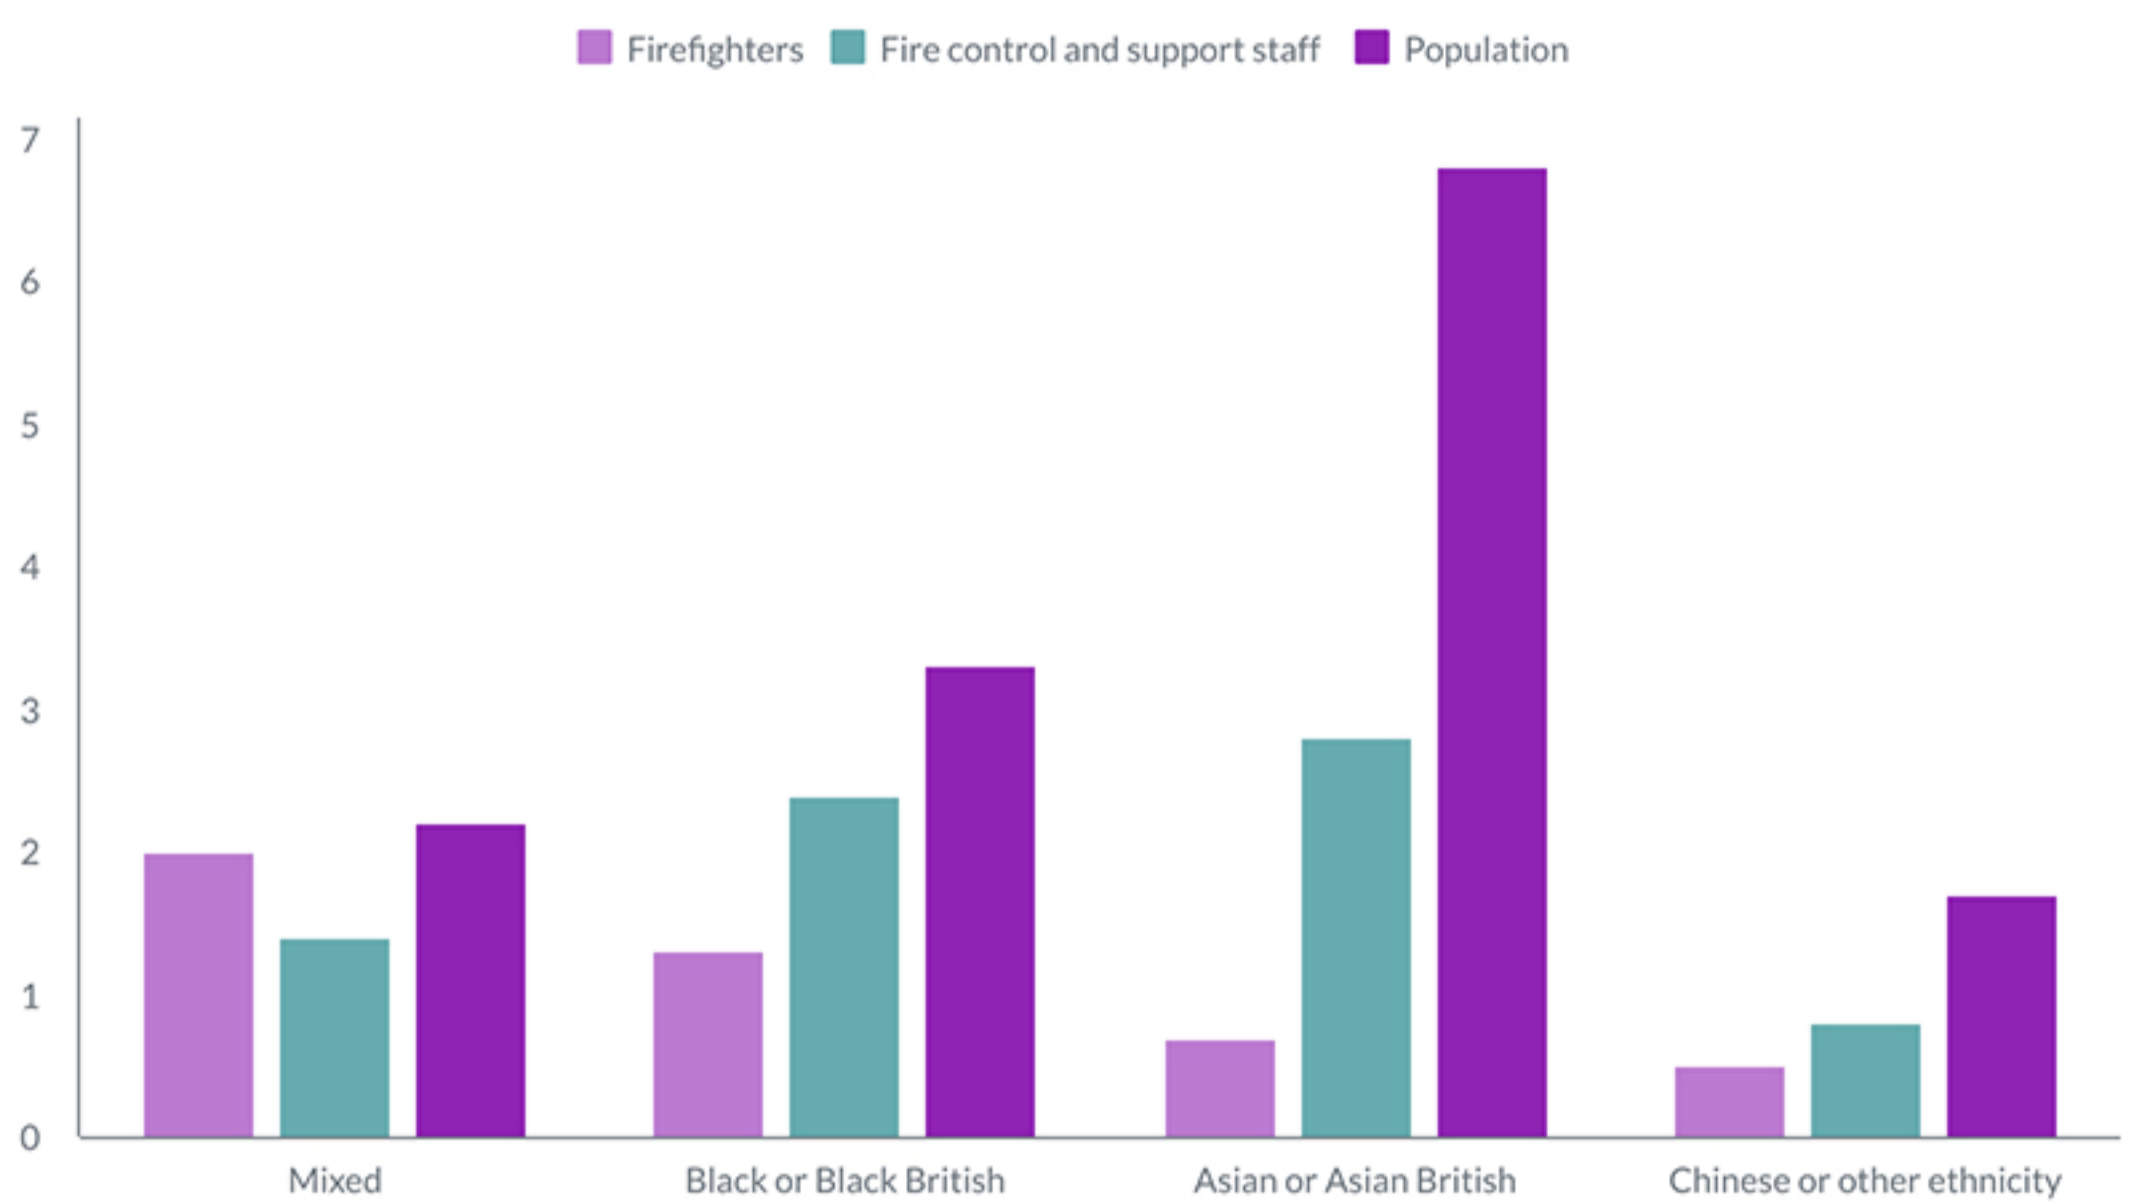

In 2020, 7% of firefighters were women - slightly higher than 2019

The average age of a firefighter has decreased

4.4% of firefighters were from an ethnic minority in England in 2020. This compares with 14.6% of the English population

There were 2,466 firefighter injuries during 2019/20 with the number of firefighter injuries plateauing in recent years

Data sources: Fire and rescue workforce and pension statistics: 2020 and 2011 Census, ONS

For more info contact Fire Statistics: FireStatistics@homeoffice.gov.uk

For data sources and definitions relating to the statistics presented in this sheet, see this page: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/fire-statistics>