Respondent: Mr Curtis, counsel

JUDGMENT

The Claimant's claim in respect of unfair dismissal is struck out.

Note: This has been a remote hearing to which the parties have consented. The form of remote hearing was video conference hearing using Cloud Video Platform. A face to face hearing was not held in the interests of justice to avoid delay and in accordance with the overriding objective to minimise expenditure on time and costs. The documents which the Employment Judge considered are the pleadings, subsequent orders made in this case and others brought to her attention in the Tribunal File provided.
