Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000: MINISTRY OF DEFENCE POLICE: HOUSE PARTIES.

We refer to your email dated 31 October 2020 to the Ministry of Defence Police which was acknowledged on the same date.

We are treating your email as a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA 2000).

In your email you requested the following follow on information:

- “1. The total number of house parties attended by police officers in the past two months (October and September)
- 2. If possible, the number of student house parties attended by police officers in the same time period
- 3. The number and total cost of fixed penalty notices issued by police officers to households for holding house parties in the past two months (i.e 5 notices issued, totalling £50,000 at £10,000 each) and the dates they were issued
- 4. If possible, the number and total amount of fixed penalty notices issued by police officers to students for holding house parties in the past two months (i.e 5 notices issued, totalling £50,000 at £10,000 each) and the dates they were issued.”

A search for information has now been completed by the Ministry of Defence Police and I can confirm that we do hold information in scope of your request.
