Dear [REDACTED]

PROVISION OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

Thank you for your request for information live animal exports which we received on 28 April 2020. Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). The information you requested and our response is detailed below:

“If APHA would kindly liaise with DAFM, they will confirm that both the registration number and date of export are required to supply the journey log to the public under FOI.”

For exports where the exporting country is outwith the UK, in this case Ireland, any request for information should be directed to them.

“As these calves did not leave Ramsgate could you also please answer the following in order to clarify what happened to them:

- Did the calves stay in England ? If so, what became of them?
- Were the calves taken back to Ireland?
- Were the calves exported to mainland Europe via other means from England? If so what means?”

APHA can confirm the calves were exported from the UK to Ireland on 29th April.

Information disclosed in response to this FOI request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOI and the government’s Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on GOV.UK, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the GOV.UK website.

An Annex is attached which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you and contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact the Access to Information Team at the email address below. During the current Coronavirus outbreak our offices will be closed, so we will be unable to collect any correspondence sent via post.

Yours sincerely

Copyright

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by copyright. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including for private study and non-commercial research, and for any other purpose authorised by an exception in current copyright law. Documents (except photographs or logos) can also be used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Most documents produced by APHA will be protected by Crown Copyright. Most Crown copyright information can be re-used under the Open Government Licence. For information about the OGL and about re-using Crown Copyright information please see The National Archives website.

Copyright in other documents may rest with a third party. For information about obtaining permission from a third party see the Intellectual Property Office's website.

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request, you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 11 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to the Access to Information Manager at the address at the top of this letter or email enquiries@apha.gov.uk and the team will arrange for an internal review of your case.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) for a decision. Please note that generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted APHA's own complaints procedure. The ICO can be contacted at:
