JUDGMENT

By consent and upon terms of settlement being agreed between the parties at this hearing, the Judgment of the Tribunal is that all further proceedings in this claim are stayed.

REASONS

1. “Code V” in the heading indicates that this was a remote CVP video hearing.
2. The claimant had been part of the initial furlough scheme established under the Government’s Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme and claimed outstanding holiday pay (or compensation for accrued paid annual leave).
3. The parties reached terms of settlement at the hearing following discussion with the Judge.
