For the Respondent: No response presented; no attendance

JUDGMENT

1. No response has been presented and there has been no attendance or appearance by the respondent.
2. On the basis of the evidence and information placed before me, I enter a default judgment pursuant to rule 21 of the tribunal rules.
3. My judgment is:
 - a) The claimant succeeds in the following claims only¹:
 - i) Holiday pay of £426.40
 - ii) Pension contribution of £42.16
 - iii) Unpaid wages/furlough of £1049.60
 - iv) Unpaid SSP of £249.21
 - v) Notice pay of £328.00
 - vi) All other claims advanced by the claimant are dismissed.

¹ The awards are gross figures

- b) Pursuant to rule 75(2) of the tribunal rules I make a time preparation order in the claimant's favour of £500.00, which I order the respondent also to pay to the claimant.
- c) I therefore award the claimant the total sum of £2,595.37 comprising the awards at a) and b) above, which I order the respondent to pay.
