SCC/FOI/02/20/OA

Freedom of Information Request regarding the number of Licence Plates which will be held on the Vehicle of Interest lists held on the NAS.

Published 12 February 2020

Dear [redacted]

Letter by email

I write in response to an email you sent to me on 7 February 2020. You requested estimated details of the number of licence plates which will be held on the Vehicle of Interest lists on the National ANPR Service (NAS). Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Q1. I would like an estimate of the number of Licence Plates which will be held on the Vehicle of Interest lists held on the NAS.

I am an independent regulator of surveillance camera systems appointed by the Home Secretary. I do not hold the information which you have requested. You may consider a separate request to be made to the Home Office under the Freedom of Information Act regarding this request.

If you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to the address below, quoting reference SCC/FOI/02/20/OA. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.

[redacted]

As part of any internal review my handling of your information request will be reassessed by staff that were not involved in providing you with this response. If you remain dissatisfied after this internal review, you would have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner as established by section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act.
