Before: Employment Judge KJ Palmer

JUDGMENT on APPLICATION for a RECONSIDERATION

Under Rule 71 of the Employment Tribunals (Constitution and Rules of Procedure) Regulations 2013, Schedule 1

1. At a Hearing which took place before a Full Tribunal consisting of Employment Judge K J Palmer and Members, Ms W Smith and Mr R Eyre on 8 and 9 October 2020, all of the Claimant's claims were unanimously struck out under Rule 37 of the Employment Tribunals Rules.
2. Full reasons were given, which reasons were then sent to the parties. Those reasons run to some 66 paragraphs and 11 pages.
3. In summary, the Claimant's claims were struck out under Rule 37(1)(b), 37(1)(c) and 37(1)(d) of the Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013, as more particularly detailed in the Judgment at paragraphs 57 – 62 inclusive.
4. By a letter dated 19 November 2020, the Claimant seeks a Reconsideration of that Judgment. The letter runs to some 19 pages.
5. The letter repeats a series of unfounded allegations previously ventilated in correspondence with the Tribunal and at some length by the Claimant during the two day Hearing of this matter, prior to the strike out, that the Employment Tribunal Service and any and all Judges who have come into contact with this matter throughout its history, including now Employment

Judge KJ Palmer, are engaged in a criminal conspiracy against the Claimant.

6. I do not propose to go through each and every point put forward in the Claimant's 19 page letter as each and every point is more than adequately covered and dealt with in the Judgment with Reasons.
7. Having considered the Application for a Reconsideration in the Claimant's letter of 19 November 2020, I consider that there is no reasonable prospect to the original decision being varied or revoked.
8. Accordingly, the Claimant's Application for a Reconsideration is refused.
