2	11-Jan-2021		Broadwells Wood, Crackley Lane, Kenilworth  W3W: react.stared.desk	Unidentified person(s) gathered at the perimeter of Broadwells Wood and gained access to the works area. Whilst there, they approached various pieces of plant and sprayed graffiti onto the windows and mirrors of the drivers' cabins. The person(s) also cut electronic cables on two excavators, three dumpers, and two rollers. The damage that resulted is shown in the images at p.[ ]. The operatives reported the incident to Warwickshire Police immediately upon discovery of the damage. In light of its severity, Security Guarding and Perimeter Intrusion Detection Systems ("PIDS") were deployed until completion of the works.
3	12-Jan-2021		Land near Crackley Lane, Kenilworth  W3W: covers.shares.kinks	Site operatives became aware that unidentified person(s) had entered onto the Crackley Land overnight. The person(s) had removed two chains and padlocks from the main gates to the site. ## SCHEDULE OF INCIDENTS

4	12-Jan-2021	16:00	Land near Crackley Lane, Kenilworth W3W: rests.spoken.host	A number of protestors attempted to access the site at Lower Crackley, where reinstatement works were taking place. This part of the site is in close proximity to a protestor camp. Shortly after their arrival, a male protestor forced his way through the Heras security fence and onto the site. He then proceeded to dig up the wooden posts designed to secure the fencing between the site and the protestor camp. Members of the security team approached the male and informed him that he was trespassing onto injuncted land and causing damage to the fence line. The male responded by swinging a shovel at the security officers in an aggressive manner. He refused to leave voluntarily and was ultimately escorted to a set of gates in the centre of the site. As security attempted to close the gates, the male began striking the gates forcefully with his spade. One of these strikes narrowly missed the face of a security officer. The security team directed the male loudly to drop the spade, and leave the site. He refused to do this. As a result, security had no other option than to disarm the individual with minimal force. The male struck out at the security officers several times during this incident, hitting one of them in the eye. Once security had disarmed him, the male continued to hurl abuse at the operatives. Throughout the course of this incident, other protestors were attempting to access the site through the damaged fence line. Site workers prevented them from doing so by holding the fence in place until the security team could take over. Security reported this incident to Warwickshire Police, who are currently investigating it. Body Worn Video (“BWV”) was worn throughout the incident, and is available at [    ].
