Open General Trade Control Licence

Insurance or Re-insurance

December 2020

TRADE LICENCE

Open General Trade Control Licence (Insurance or Re-insurance) dated 31 December 2020 granted by the Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by the powers for each permitted destination as set out in Schedule 1, hereby grants the following Open General Trade Control Licence:

Licence

1. Subject to the following conditions set out below, this Licence authorises the Head Insurance Party and any Additional Insurance Party (as defined in paragraph 11 below) to arrange or provide insurance or reinsurance in relation to UN mandated or authorised missions or operations involving the movement of the goods specified in Schedule 2 to this Licence, from one third country to another third country that is an embargoed destination in Schedule 1.

The arrangement and provision of such insurance is described in this licence as “the insurance activity”.

Exclusions

2. This Licence does not apply:
- (a) if the Head Insurance Party and/or Additional Insurance Party are aware or suspect that the goods to which the insurance activity relates are or may be intended, in their entirety or in part for use in connection with the development, production, handling, operation, maintenance, storage, detection, identification or dissemination of chemical, biological or nuclear weapons, or other nuclear explosive devices or the development, production, maintenance or storage of missiles capable of delivering such weapons;
 - (b) if the Head Insurance Party and/or Additional Insurance Party know or have reason to believe that the action in paragraph 1 above will or may result in the removal of the goods specified in the Schedule 2 to a non-embargoed destination, or to an embargoed destination to which the conditions in paragraph 1 above do not apply;

- (c) if the Head Insurance Party and/or Additional Insurance Party have been informed by a competent UK authority, or are aware that the transaction will be carried out contrary to the export or import law or regulations of the exporting or importing country;
- (d) where the Head Insurance Party and/or Additional Insurance Party have, at the time of act, been served with a notice which suspends or revokes their ability to use this Licence, unless the period of suspension or revocation has expired.

Conditions and Requirements

3 The authorisation in paragraph 1 above is subject to the following conditions:

- (a). Nothing in this Licence authorises any activity outside the United Kingdom which is prohibited by the law of any of the territories
- (b). where that activity is to be carried out, or any exportation of any goods from the United Kingdom. In order to remain within the terms of the Licence, the Head Insurance Party and Additional Insurance Party will need to be able to provide evidence of the linkage between the transport of the goods for which insurance/reinsurance is required and the specific UNSR to which such transport relates in the manner provided in paragraph 7 below.

4. No Additional Insurance Party may participate in the insurance activity unless it informs, or has already informed the Head Insurance Party, in writing, of the following:-

- (a) The Additional Insurance Party's name and address;

(b) The Additional Insurance Party's intention to participate or continue participating in the insurance activity;

5. Where the Head Insurance Party receives, or has already received, the information specified in paragraph 4 in relation to an Additional Insurance Party, the Head Insurance Party shall send a copy of this licence to the relevant Additional Insurance Party.

The Head Insurance Party must comply with this requirement before the end of the period of [14] days beginning with the later of the date of this licence and the date the Head Insurance Party received the information specified in paragraph 4 in relation to the relevant Additional Insurance Party.

6. The provisions of Article 28 (registration) of the Export Control Order 2008 ("the 2008 Order") shall apply to any act under the authority of this Licence. However, the Head Insurance Party and the Additional Insurance Party may agree that the Head Insurance Party complies with the provisions of Article 28 in his own name and/or on behalf of the Additional Insurance Parties. However, no such arrangement will exempt any of them from having to comply with the remaining conditions of this licence and or from being liable to prosecution if such conditions are not met.

7. In accordance with the applicable legislation, the Head Insurance Party and each Additional Insurance Party shall keep records in relation to the insurance activity; but the appropriate information is to be kept is as follows:

- (a) a description of their participation in it;
- (b) the dates of their participation in it; and
- (c) records containing sufficient details to demonstrate the insurance/reinsurance being arranged or provided is in relation to UN mandated or authorised missions or operations. "For the purposes of this record keeping requirement, "sufficient details" shall include a purchase order issued by a UN body, pages from a contract agreed with a UN body or other equivalent form of documentary evidence which in the opinion of the Export

Control Joint Unit can sufficiently show that the insurance or reinsurance relates to a UN mandated or authorised mission or operation.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Head Insurance Party and the Additional Insurance Parties may agree that the records required by this licence will be kept by one or more of them on behalf of the rest. However, no such arrangement will prevent any of them from being liable to prosecution if the records are not kept.

8. The records required by this licence should be kept in accordance with the applicable legislation, from the end of the calendar year in which the insurance activity concluded and the Head Insurance Party and the Additional Insurance Party must permit them to be inspected and copied by any person authorised by the Secretary of State or the Commissioners.

9. Where the Head Insurance Party has received a warning letter sent on behalf of the Secretary of State which identifies failure to comply with this Licence or a provision of applicable export control legislation, the Head Insurance Party shall send a copy of the notice to each of the Additional Insurance Parties and take such steps as are identified in that warning letter (within the timescale stated) in order to restore compliance with the Licence.

Without prejudice to article 34 of the 2008 Order or any other relevant offences under subordinate legislation made pursuant to the United Nations Act 1946 in relation to embargoed destinations, failure to comply with this condition may result in this Licence being revoked or suspended until the Head Insurance Party can show compliance to the satisfaction of DIT. The Head Insurance Party will be notified in writing of any such suspension or revocation and the initial period of such suspension or revocation. The Head Insurance Party shall send a copy of the notice to each of the Additional Insurance Parties. Where at the end of this initial period, the Head Insurance Party has not shown compliance to the satisfaction of DIT, the period of suspension or revocation may be extended. The Head Insurance Party will be notified of such an extension in writing.

Prohibitions not affected by this Licence

10. Nothing in this Licence shall affect any prohibition or restriction on the trade or the carrying out of any act with respect to the trade of any goods concerned under, or by virtue of, any enactment other than a prohibition or restriction in the legislation under which this Licence was issued, as set out in the Licence itself.

11. This licence does not permit any activity outside of the scope of the licensing powers listed in Schedule 1.

Interpretation

12. For the purpose of this Licence:

(1) A “Head Insurance Party” means –

- (a) any insurer, insurance broker or reinsurer operating from within the UK; or
- (b) an insurer, insurance broker or reinsurer which is a United Kingdom person as defined in section 11(1) of the Export Control Act 2002 operating anywhere in the world, who is a party to the insurance activity (as defined in paragraph 1) and also acts on behalf of the Additional Insurance Party for the purposes of this Licence.

(2) An “Additional Insurance Party” means-

- (a) any insurer, insurance broker or reinsurer operating from within the UK; or
- (b) an insurer, insurance broker or reinsurer which is a United Kingdom person as defined in article 11(1) of the Export Control Act 2002 operating anywhere in the world, who is a party to the insurance activity (as defined in paragraph 1) and fulfils the requirements in paragraph 4 of this Licence.

- (3) unless the context otherwise requires, any other expression used in this Licence shall have the meaning it bears in the Export Control Act 2002, or in the 2008 Order.

Entry into Force

13. This Licence shall come into force at 23:00 on 31 December 2020.
14. Open General Trade Control Licence (Insurance or Re-insurance) dated 12 April 2019 is hereby revoked.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Licence)

1. This Open General Trade Control Licence has been revised to take into account changes in legislation following the end of the transition period.
2. This Open General Trade Control Licence permits, without further authority but subject to certain conditions, the provision of insurance or reinsurance in relation to UN mandated or authorised missions or operations consisting of the transfer of goods specified in the Schedule, from a third country to another third country which is an embargoed destination as defined in article 2 of the Export Control Order 2008 (“2008 Order”).
3. Subject to its conditions, the Licence is available for use by any “Head Insurance Party” or “Additional Insurance Party” as defined in paragraph 11 of the Licence (which includes the insurer, insurance broker or reinsurer) operating from the UK and/or an Head Insurance party or Additional Insurance Party which is a UK person, as defined in article 11(1) of the Export Control Act 2002 irrespective of where in the world they carry out their operations (since UK trade controls apply to these categories of Insurance Parties).
4. The insurance/reinsurance cover may only be arranged or provided under this Licence if such insurance or reinsurance satisfy certain restrictions. These include;
 - Are in respect of UN mandated or authorised missions or operations and not for use in connection with Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD);
 - not for use in connection with exports of goods located in the UK or Isle of Man;
 - not for use if the Head Insurance party and/or Additional Insurance Party have been informed by a competent UK authority, or are otherwise aware that the transaction may be contrary to the law of the exporting or importing third country;

5. This licence does not authorise any activity prohibited by financial, immigration or transport sanctions, even where those sanctions form part of the same sanctions instrument that this licence is granted under.
6. The provisions of this Licence only apply for the purposes of the trade controls specified by legislation made under the Export Control Act 2002 or the United Nations Act 1946 in relation to embargoed destinations. They do not affect the need to obtain other consents that may be required for the export of particular military goods, whether under other statutory provisions (such as the Official Secrets Act 1989) or otherwise (such as under contractual obligations). In addition, this Licence does not extend to prohibitions (other than the trade controls pursuant to the legislation mentioned above) in other legislation.
7. The issue of this Licence does not remove the requirement to obtain permission of the authorities of the appropriate country to remove or receive goods from or to that territory as necessary.
8. If the Head Insurance Party or/and Additional Insurance Party has been informed by a competent authority or is otherwise aware (for example, from information received from the manufacturer) that trade in controlled goods includes goods subject to a protective marking, appropriate security transportation arrangements (in accordance with national practices of the exporting country) must be made.
9. The 2008 Order contains certain registration and record keeping requirements which apply to the Head Insurance Party and Additional Insurance Party using this Licence, as follows,
 - a) Under Article 28 of the 2008 Order, any person (in the context of this Licence the Head Insurance Party or the Additional Insurance Party) who does any act under the authority of this Licence must, before or within 30 days after the first occasion he makes use of the Licence, provide details to the Secretary of State of his name and address where copies of the records referred to below may be inspected. This notification must be made via the DIT's electronic licensing system, SPIRE, at <https://www.spire.trade.gov.uk/>.

However, paragraph 6 of this Licence provides that the Head Insurance Party and the Additional Insurance Parties may agree that the Head Insurance Party complies with the provisions of Article 28 in his own name and/or on behalf of the Additional Insurance Parties. It further clarifies that where this arrangement is in place, they will all continue to be bound by the conditions of the licence and may be liable to prosecution if such conditions are not met.

b) Under Article 29 of the 2008 Order, any person (in the context of this Licence the Head Insurance Party or Additional Insurance Party who does any act under the authority of this Licence must maintain and retain certain records relating to each such acts for at least 4 years from the end of the calendar year in which the authorised act takes place, and must permit such records to be inspected and copied by any person authorised by the Secretary of State. In accordance with paragraph 7 of this Licence, Article 29 only applies in respect of this Licence, so as to only require that the Head Insurance Party and/or Additional Insurance Party keep the limited records specified in that paragraph

10. Persons who registered to use previous versions of this licence do not need to re-register. Registrations are carried over to the current in force version of this licence.

11. The Secretary of State has the power to suspend or revoke licences at any time and in such circumstances and on such terms as he thinks fit. If a Head Insurance Party and/or Additional Insurance Party receive written notice to this effect, they shall be prevented from relying on this Licence. The power to suspend may be used in addition to criminal prosecution or as an alternative. Suspension may occur for example where a Head Insurance Party or Additional Insurance Party are being investigated or prosecuted in relation to a possible criminal offence or have been found guilty of a criminal offence under the export control legislation. It may also be used in situations where a trader has breached the conditions of the Licence and failed to take corrective action within a reasonable period.

12. Where DIT identifies failures in compliance with Licence conditions or the applicable legislation during a compliance visit, DIT may send a warning letter to the Head Insurance Party listing the improvements that need to be made to ensure compliance. The letter will set out the timeframe within which these improvements must be completed. Failure to complete these improvements may lead to the Head Insurance Party and Additional Insurance Party's ability to use the Licence being suspended for a period of time.
