LONDON, TUESDAY MAY 10, 1921

GREECE'S WAR.

PREMIER VISITS FRONT,

SPIRIT OF THE TROOPS.

FROM A. BEAUMONT, ATHENS, SUNDAY.

M. Gounaris and the other members of the Government have returned from their voyage to Asia Minor. Before leaving Asia Minor the Premier visited Ismid, the northernmost point of the Greek area of occupation. The steamer Naxos, with MM. Gounaris, Theotokis, and Dousmanis on board, left the anchorage of Chios, opposite Mudania, at two o'clock, and arrived at six o'clock at the ancient Nicomedia, rebaptised as Ismid by the Turks. In steaming up the Sea of Marmora they passed almost within sight of Constantinople, which constitutes the supreme aspiration of Greece. The commanders of the Greek flotilla and the officers on land came to visit them on board the Naxos. M. Gounaris abandoned the idea of visiting the troops at the Ismid front, which would have required another day, as he was anxious to return to Athens. The local authorities, including the Mussulmans, are said to have been very pleased with the Governmental visit and to have given expression to their loyalty. The Naxos arrived here at one o'clock this morning,

A report from Smyrna states that Mustapha Kemal has proposed to his followers to declare that Mohammed VI, the Sultan of Constantinople, has forfeited his right to the throne because he is the worst enemy of Turkey. Mustapha Kemal intends to proclaim as Sultan a Senussi prince who has been with him at Angora for the past month, and who claims descent from the prophet Mahomet. Several hundred deserters have in the past week crossed over from the Kemalists to the Greek lines at various parts of the front, complaining that they are badly treated by their officers.

The Turkish papers had announced that the Greek Government was disposed to enter into negotiations with the Angora Government to arrange for a cessation of hostilities and the cession of Thrace and Smyrna. The mere suggestion of such a proposal is indignantly rejected here as being without the slightest foundation. M. Gounaris desires it to be announced emphatically that neither he nor any member of the Government has given the slightest occasion for such an absurd report. Greece not only intends to keep Thrace and Smyrna, whose Greek inhabitants have been liberated from the Turkish yoke, never again to return to it, but furthermore intends to prosecute the war with energy.

M. Gounaris declares that he and his colleagues found the morale of the army along the front to be excellent and the supplies abundant. This cannot be said of the Turkish army, which is badly supplied, and into which a large part of the troops have been pressed by Mustapha Kemal against their will.

The Albanian conflict seems to have been definitely settled. An interview between the Albanian Governor of Koritsa and the Greek Prefect of Janina has resulted in an agreement, by which the Albanians have guaranteed not to press the Greeks into military service, to restore the churches to the Greeks, and not to confiscate the earnings of Greek emigrants returning to Albania.

The trial of the Greek journalist named Papandreou, who wrote a violent article in the Patris some time ago against the King, demanding his abdication, has excited considerable comment in Athens. M. Papandreou appeared before a court-martial yesterday and was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment. The Public Prosecutor admitted that the court-martial had no jurisdiction, inasmuch as the alleged offence was committed before censorship was established or martial law proclaimed. Nevertheless, the Court heard the case and passed sentence. The defence has consequently applied for a revision of the case.

Opening Lead ♣A

TAKE the South cards from Marcin Lesniewski in Alt Swiss Pairs, and plan the play in 4♠. Sandra Rimstedt (West) starts with ♣A and ♣K, Gary Donner (East) petering (high-low) with his ♣106 to encourage, and switches to ace and another diamond.

The ♥K, you surmise on this defence, is with West. Without it, she would have switched to a heart at trick two. You win the diamond in hand, take the ♠K and finesse the ♠J, which holds as West follows. What are the shapes of the defenders' hands, and how do you continue?

West, assuming East's peter was from two, was dealt five clubs. She may conceivably have been 2-3-3-5, but then you can't make your contract. 3-3-2-5 is also just possible, but would be a strange shape for West to double on (three low spades, only three of the unbid major).

Most likely West is 2-4-2-5, and that's what declarer played for. The Pole tried the ♦K. When it held, the distribution was confirmed.

South played the ♣J next from dummy, discarding his fourth diamond as East threw a heart. On the ♦Q from dummy at trick nine, both East and South shed hearts. The following cards remained:

N: ♠ none ♥ A 7 2 ♦ none ♣ 7
W: ♠ none ♥ K 10 6 ♦ none ♣ 8
E: ♠ Q 9 ♥ 9 8 ♦ none ♣ none
S: ♠ A 10 5 ♥ Q ♦ none ♣ none

South ruffed a club with the ♠5, crossed to ♥A, and made the ♠A10 over East to complete his trump coup. Well played; these were the original East-West hands:

N: ♠ 7 3 ♥ K 10 6 3 ♦ A 4 ♣ A K 8 5 4
W: ♠ Q 9 6 4 ♥ 9 8 5 4 ♦ 7 6 2 ♣ 10 6

To beat 4♠ at trick three, West must lead a third club, allowing East to get rid of a diamond.

Final Result 4♠ made, N/S +620
Par Result 3NT off one, N/S -100

Portuguese prowess

By Malcolm Pein

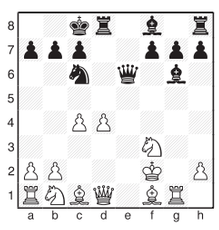
PORTUGAL have managed to run a few small over-the-board events, including the Portuguese Masters last month. FM Jose Francisco Veiga, 16, finished a point and a half clear, his 7/9 sufficient for an IM norm.

The tournament also witnessed, appropriately enough, a crazy encounter in the Portuguese variation of the Scandinavian Defence, 1.e4 d5 2.exd5 Nf6 3.d4 (savvy white players avoid what's coming with 3.Nf3) 3...Bg4!?. This isn't 100 per cent sound, but is a dangerous practical try that scores well at club level.



P. Silva – L. Reis
Portuguese Masters 2021
1.e4 d5 2.exd5 Nf6 3.d4 Bg4 4.f3 Bf5 5.g4!? (Dubbed the 'correspondence refutation' by leading authority on the Scandinavian, the Australian GM David Smerdon) 5....Bg6 6.c4 e6 7.dxe6? (To make sense of his ambitious fifth move, White should prefer 7.Nc3 exd5 8.g5) 7...Nxg4? (Very brave and tempting, but simply 7...Nc6 leaves Black with excellent compensation after 8.Be3 Qe7 or 8.exf7+ Bxf7) 8.fxg4 Qh4+ 9.Ke2 Nc6 10.Nf3 Qxg4 11.Rg1 (11.exf7+ Bxf7 12.Rg1 Qe6+ 13.Kf2 was an option) 11...Qxe6+ 12.Kf2 0-0-0 (See board left. White is a piece for a pawn up, but it's never easy when you're behind in development with a weak king. Now 13.Qe2! or 13.Nc3 Bc5 14.Nd5!?) 13.Be3? Bc5! 14.Qe2? (Collapsing, 14.Rg5 was required) 14...Nxd4! 15.Bxd4 Bxd4+ 16.Nxd4 Qb6 (16...Qf6+! was strong, and if 17.Nf3? Rhe8) 17.Bh3+ Kb8 18.Rd1? (18.Kg2) 18...Rhe8? (Simply 18...Rxd4 19.Rxd4 Qxd4+ 20.Kg3 (20.Kg2 Be4+) 20...Qg1+ 21.Bg2 Rd8 cleans White up) 19.Qd2? Re4 20.Nc3 Rdxd4 21.c5 Qxc5 22.Nxe4 Rxd2+ 23.Kf1 Qc4+ 0-1

White frequently goes a pawn or two ahead in the Portuguese, but never lives to tell the tale, as happened to a rising star of Irish chess here.

T. Kanyamarala – N. Korkmaz

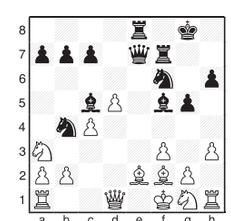
1.e4 d5 2.exd5 Nf6 3.d4 Bg4 4.f3 Bf5 5.c4 e6 6.dxe6 Nc6! 7.d5? (7.exf7+ Kxf7 gives Black too great a lead in development, so 7.Be3 should be tried) 7...Nb4 8.Na3 Bc5 9.Be2 0-0 10.exf7+ Rxf7 11.Bg5 Qe7 12.Kf1 h6 13.Bh4 Re8 14.h3 g5! 15.Bf2 How did Black now finish off the vulnerable white king?



Answer:
15...Bxf2 16.Kxf2 Qe3+ 17.Kf1 Nh5 17...Nd3 and 17...Ne4! also work. 0-1

THE OFFSHORE OIL AND GAS EXPLORATION, PRODUCTION, UNLOADING AND STORAGE (ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT) REGULATIONS 2020

Jackdaw Field Development

BG International Limited (an affiliate of Shell U.K. Limited) has made an application for consent to the Oil and Gas Authority ("the OGA") in relation to the above project.

Summary of Project
Jackdaw ultra-high pressure / high temperature gas condensate field is located 250 km east of Aberdeen, Scotland and adjacent to the UK/Norway median line. The project involves drilling four wells, installation of a new wellhead platform and a new 31 km pipeline to the existing Shearwater host platform where the fluids will be processed before onward export via the Fulmar Gas Line and the Forties Pipeline System. Drilling, installation and commissioning will take place between 2022-2024.

Environmental Impact Assessment and Consent Process
In accordance with the above-mentioned Regulations, the project is subject to an environmental impact assessment procedure and regulation 13 applies as the project could have a significant effect on the environment of Norway.
The OGA is responsible for deciding whether or not to grant consent for the project, but agreement to the grant of consent must be obtained from the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy ("the Secretary of State") prior to consent being granted. The Secretary of State's decision on whether to agree to the grant of consent is based on the environmental impact assessment for the project.

The range of possible decisions in response to the application of consent is:
(a) the Secretary of State agrees to the OGA's grant of consent following the Secretary of State's conclusion regarding the environmental effects of the project, and the OGA grants consent, so the project may proceed;
(b) the Secretary of State refuses to agree to the OGA's grant of consent following the Secretary of State's conclusion regarding the environmental effects of the project, so the project may not proceed; or
(c) the Secretary of State agrees to the OGA's grant of consent following the Secretary of State's conclusion regarding the environmental effects of the project, but the OGA does not grant consent, so the project may not proceed.
Where the Secretary of State agrees to the grant of consent, conditions that BG International Limited must comply with may be attached to the agreement, including environmental conditions to avoid, prevent, reduce or offset any significant adverse effects on the environment, and measures to monitor such conditions.
Notice of the decisions of the Secretary of State and OGA decisions for the project will be published at: https://www.gov.uk/guidance/the-2020-eia-regulations#environmental-impact-assessments-eia where information on the Secretary of State's decision to agree to or refuse to agree to the grant of consent will also be made available.

Access to Further Information
Copies of this notice, the summary of the project and the Environmental Statement can be viewed and downloaded at www.shell.co.uk/sustainability/reporting and at https://www.gov.uk/guidance/the-2020-eia-regulations#environmental-impact-assessments-eia
Access shall remain at least three months after the date on which the Secretary of State publishes the notice under Regulation 16(1) (publication of consent decisions).
A copy of the Environmental Statement and summary of the project may also be obtained by post or email. Requests should be made to Jackdaw Project, Shell U.K. Limited, 1 Altens Farm Road, Nigg, Aberdeen, AB12 3FY, by email to HSE-Learning@shell.com or by telephone 01224-882000 by 09/06/2021.

Public Consultation
Representations, comments or questions relating to the project may be made to the Secretary of State by 09/06/2021. All representations should quote reference number D/4260/2021 and may be made by letter or by email to:
