Dear ██████████

RE: Request for Information – RFI3405

Thank you for your recent email, which was processed under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). You requested the following information:

*Under the Freedom of Information Act I request any and all information pertaining to the application to the Building Safety Fund for remediation of non ACM cladding systems (England) in relations to ;
Block 2.
Flats 28-52 Manor Court
Weybridge
Surrey KT13 8 RG.*

Response

We are able to confirm that Homes England does not hold the information detailed in your request. This is because there is no business reason for Homes England to do so.

In order to conclude that the information is not held, we have searched with our Building Safety Fund team who would have the requested information if held.

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty under section 1(1) is only to provide the recorded information held.

The full text of section 1 in the legislation can be found here:

<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2000/36/section/1>

Advice and Assistance

We have a duty to provide advice and assistance in accordance with Section 16 of the FOIA. To comply with this duty we are able to confirm that the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government (MHCLG) undertake a technical assessment on any applications to the Building Safety Fund before the application is transferred to Homes England to progress. Homes England have not had an application transferred regarding the address in your request. You may wish to contact MHCLG, whose details are as follows:

Right to Appeal

If you are not happy with the information that has been provided or the way in which your request has been handled, you may request an internal review. You can request an internal review by writing to Homes England via the details below, quoting the reference number at the top of this letter.

Email: infogov@homesengland.gov.uk

The Information Governance Team
Homes England – 6th Floor
Windsor House
50 Victoria Street
London
SW1H 0TL

Your request for review must be made in writing, explain why you wish to appeal, and be received within 40 working days of the date of this response. Failure to meet this criteria may lead to your request being refused.

Upon receipt, your request for review will be passed to an independent party not involved in your original request. We aim to issue a response within 20 working days.

You may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) however, the Information Commissioner does usually expect the internal review procedure to be exhausted in the first instance.

The Information Commissioner's details can be found via the following link <https://ico.org.uk/>

Please note that the contents of your request and this response are also subject to the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Homes England may be required to disclose your request and our response accordingly.

Yours sincerely,

The Information Governance Team
