DECISION

The Tribunal grants dispensation from the consultation requirements of S.20 Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 in respect of the provision of scaffolding, removing the render above the windows, providing a base frame for the new render band, lining and re-rendering using stainless steel lathes followed by painting the elevation locally to match existing.

In granting dispensation, the Tribunal makes no determination as to whether any service charge costs are reasonable or payable.

Background

1. The Applicant seeks dispensation under Section 20ZA of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 from the consultation requirements imposed on the landlord by Section 20 of the 1985 Act.
2. The Applicant explains that a section of masonry on the front bay has come away and fallen. The surrounding masonry is also loose and at risk. A scaffolding tower has been erected to allow an assessment and as protection from falling debris.
3. The work for which dispensation is required is the provision of scaffolding, removing the render above the windows, providing a base frame for the new render band, lining and re-rendering using stainless steel lathes followed by painting the elevation locally to match existing. The scaffolding is incurring a monthly hire and licence fee.
4. The Tribunal made Directions on 22 December 2020 indicating that the Tribunal was satisfied that the matter is urgent, it is not practicable for there to be a hearing and it is in the interests of justice to make a decision disposing of the proceedings without a hearing (Rule 6A of the Tribunal Procedure Rules 2013 as amended by The Tribunal Procedure (Coronavirus) Amendment Rules 2020 SI 2020 No 406 L11).
5. The Tribunal sent a copy of the Directions to the parties notified as Respondents together with a form for the Respondents to indicate whether they agreed with or objected to the application and if they objected to send their reasons to the Applicant.
6. It was indicated that if the application was agreed to or no response was received the lessees would be removed as Respondents.
7. One Lessee responded agreeing to the proposals and as such the Lessees have been removed as Respondents in accordance with the above paragraph.
8. The only issue for the Tribunal is whether it is reasonable to dispense with any statutory consultation requirements. This decision does not concern the issue of whether any service charge costs will be reasonable or payable.

The Law

9. The relevant section of the Act reads as follows:

S.20 ZA Consultation requirements:

Where an application is made to a Leasehold Valuation Tribunal for a determination to dispense with all or any of the consultation requirements in relation to any qualifying works or qualifying long-term agreement, the Tribunal may make the determination if satisfied that it is reasonable to dispense with the requirements.

10. The matter was examined in some detail by the Supreme Court in the case of Daejan Investments Ltd v Benson. In summary the Supreme Court noted the following
 - i. The main question for the Tribunal when considering how to exercise its jurisdiction in accordance with section 20ZA is the real prejudice to the tenants flowing from the landlord's breach of the consultation requirements.
 - ii. The financial consequence to the landlord of not granting a dispensation is not a relevant factor. The nature of the landlord is not a relevant factor.
 - iii. Dispensation should not be refused solely because the landlord seriously breached, or departed from, the consultation requirements.
 - iv. The Tribunal has power to grant a dispensation as it thinks fit, provided that any terms are appropriate.
 - v. The Tribunal has power to impose a condition that the landlord pays the tenants' reasonable costs (including surveyor and/or legal fees) incurred in connection with the landlord's application under section 20ZA (1).
 - vi. The legal burden of proof in relation to dispensation applications is on the landlord. The factual burden of identifying some "relevant" prejudice that they would or might have suffered is on the tenants.
 - vii. The court considered that "relevant" prejudice should be given a narrow definition; it means whether non-compliance with the consultation requirements has led the landlord to incur costs in an unreasonable amount or to incur them in the provision of services, or in the carrying out of works, which fell below a reasonable standard, in other words whether the non-compliance has in that sense caused prejudice to the tenant.
 - viii. The more serious and/or deliberate the landlord's failure, the more readily a Tribunal would be likely to accept that the tenants had suffered prejudice.
 - ix. Once the tenants had shown a credible case for prejudice, the Tribunal should look to the landlord to rebut it.

Evidence

11. The grounds for the application are contained in paragraphs 2 and 3 above.
12. In the absence of any objections from the lessees no further submissions have been required from the Applicant.

Determination

13. Dispensation from the consultation requirements of S.20 of the Act may be given where the Tribunal is satisfied that it is reasonable to dispense with those requirements.
14. Clearly it is unreasonable to delay works to the areas concerned given the risk of further falling masonry. No objections have been received from the lessees and no evidence of relevant prejudice as considered in the Daejan case referred to above has been identified.
15. In view of the above the Tribunal grants dispensation from the consultation requirements of S.20 Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 in respect of the provision of scaffolding, removing the render above the windows, providing a base frame for the new render band, lining and re-rendering using stainless steel lathes followed by painting the elevation locally to match existing.
16. In granting dispensation, the Tribunal makes no determination as to whether any service charge costs are reasonable or payable.
17. The Applicant is required to send copies of this determination to the Lessees of the flats concerned.
