13. Any person shall be disqualified to be or to continue to hold office as a Commissioner if for six months in succession he is absent from all meetings of the Commissioners unless the failure to attend was due to some reason approved by the Commissioners.

14. The schedule to the Order of 1915 shall be and is hereby repealed and the First Schedule to this Order is hereby substituted in place of the schedule to the Order of 1915 and the Commissioners may (subject to the provisions of the Order of 1915) demand receive and recover the rates specified in the First Schedule to this Order from the persons liable for payment of the same and all the provisions of sections 29 to 34 of the Order of 1915 relating to the First Schedule to the Order of 1915 except in so far as any of these provisions have been repealed by this Order shall be read and have effect as if the First Schedule to this Order had formed part of the Order of 1915 and had been the schedule referred to in that Order.

Rates on seaplanes.
12, 13 & 14
Geo. 6. c. 67.

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Civil Aviation Act 1919 the Commissioners may demand receive and recover on and in respect of seaplanes entering or using or leaving the harbour such reasonable rates as may from time to time be approved by the Minister.

(2) The rates authorised by this section in respect of seaplanes shall be paid by or be recoverable from either the owner or other person in charge of such seaplane as the Commissioners may determine.

Revision of rates.

16.—(1) If it is represented by application in writing to the Minister—

- (a) by any chamber of commerce or shipping or any representative body of traders or shipowners; or
- (b) by any person who in the opinion of the Minister has a substantial interest in the trade of the harbour and is a proper person to make an application; or
- (c) by the Commissioners;

that under the circumstances then existing the authorised rates should be revised in whole or in part the Minister if he thinks fit may make an order revising all or any of the authorised rates referred to in the application and may fix the date as from which such order shall take effect and thenceforth such order shall remain in force until the same expires or is revoked or modified by a further order of the Minister made in pursuance of this subsection.

(2) An application made to the Minister under subsection (1) of this section shall be accompanied by such information and particulars as the Minister may consider relevant certified in such manner as he may require.

(3) Where upon an application under subsection (1) of this section an order has been made or the Minister has decided not to make an order no further application for a revision of any of the rates to which the application related shall be made within twelve months from the date of such order or decision as the case may be.

(4) Before making an order under subsection (1) of this section the Minister shall consult with such bodies or persons as aforesaid as appear to him to be appropriate including the Commissioners where they are not the applicants and for the purpose of ascertaining such bodies or persons may require public notice of the application to be given and where an objection to an application is made by the Commissioners or by any such body or person as aforesaid and is not withdrawn the Minister unless it appears to him that the objection is of a trivial nature shall cause an inquiry to be held in reference to the application.

(5) Subject to the proviso to this subsection the Minister shall not by an order under subsection (1) of this section make any such revision of the authorised rates as in his opinion would so far as can be estimated be likely to result in the annual revenue of the Commissioners being insufficient or more than sufficient to enable the Commissioners with efficient management of their undertaking to make adequate provision for paying all proper expenses of and connected with the working management and maintenance of the undertaking including interest on loan capital (regard being had by him to any capital which the Commissioners may reasonably be expected to expend) making good depreciation providing for any contributions which the Commissioners may reasonably and properly carry to any reserve fund contingency fund or sinking fund and meeting all other costs charges and expenses if any properly chargeable to revenue:

Provided that in any case where the Minister is satisfied that there are special circumstances affecting the undertaking taking into account its financial condition during such period preceding the date on which an application is made under subsection (1) of this section as the Minister considers to be appropriate the Minister may revise the authorised rates in such manner as he thinks just and reasonable with due allowance for such special circumstances notwithstanding that such revision is likely to result in the revenue of the Commissioners being insufficient to enable the Commissioners to make adequate provision for all of the matters referred to in the foregoing provisions of this subsection.

(6) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 290 of the Local Government Act 1933 shall apply to inquiries which the Minister may cause to be held under this section as if they were an inquiry held in pursuance of subsection (1) of that section and the Commissioners were a local authority. 23 & 24 Geo. 5.
c. 51.

(7) The power of the Minister to make an order under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.

(8) In this section the expression "authorised rates" means the rates which the Commissioners are for the time being authorised to demand receive and recover in pursuance of the Order of 1915 as amended by this Order or any order made under this section.

17.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section in addition to the borrowing powers contained in the existing Orders the Commissioners may from time to time for the purpose of providing temporarily for current expenditure for any of the purposes of their undertaking borrow such moneys as may be necessary to provide for such expenditure at a rate of interest not exceeding five per centum per annum. Power to borrow for
expenses.

(2) The aggregate amount of the moneys borrowed under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section and outstanding at any one time shall not exceed five thousand pounds and such moneys shall as nearly as may be be repaid together with interest within twelve months from the date of borrowing.

18.—(1) The Commissioners shall in every year appropriate and set apart out of revenue after providing for the expenses mentioned in subsections (1) (2) and (3) of section 49 (Application of harbour Sinking fund.

revenue) of the Order of 1915 such sum as (together with any sums transferred to the sinking fund pursuant to subsection (4) of this section) will with the accumulations thereof by way of compound interest calculated at the rate of three pounds per centum per annum be sufficient to pay off the whole of the principal moneys borrowed as to so much thereof as has been borrowed under the Order of 1874 the Order of 1876 or the Order of 1915 before the first day of April nineteen hundred and forty-nine and is then outstanding within forty-five years from that date and as to so much thereof as may be borrowed under the Order of 1915 on or after the first day of April nineteen hundred and forty-nine within forty-five years from the date of borrowing.

(2) The first appropriation under this section shall be made in the year ending on the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and fifty-one.

(3) The Commissioners may at any time apply the whole or any part of any sums so appropriated in or towards discharge of the moneys borrowed by them as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section. Provided that the Commissioners shall pay into the fund each year and accumulate during the residue of the specified period a sum equal to the interest which would have been produced by such sinking fund or part thereof so applied if invested with compound interest at the rate of three pounds per centum per annum.

(4) Such sums standing at the commencement of this Order to the credit of the sinking fund formed pursuant to section 50 (Sinking fund) of the Order of 1915 as are represented by investments appropriated to such sinking fund shall be transferred to the sinking fund formed under this section.

(5) The references in paragraph (4) of section 49 of the Order of 1915 and in subsection (3) of section 4 (Finance) of the Order of 1925 to the sinking fund formed in accordance with the Order of 1915 shall be construed as a reference to the sinking fund formed under this section and accordingly subsection (3) of section 4 of the Order of 1925 shall be read as if the reference therein to the period of forty years or other period prescribed in section 50 (Sinking fund) of the Order of 1915 were a reference to the period of forty-five years prescribed in subsection (1) of this section.

(6) Nothing in this section shall prejudicially affect any obligation of the Commissioners as to the repayment of moneys borrowed by them before and subsisting at the commencement of this Order.

Return to Minister.

19.—(1) The Commissioners shall within two months after the expiration of each financial year transmit to the Minister a return showing the provision made by them for the repayment of money borrowed by them under the Order of 1874 the Order of 1876 or the existing Orders.

(2) The return shall show such particulars shall be made up to such date and shall be in such form as the Minister may require shall be certified by the treasurer or other person whose duty it is to keep the accounts of the Commissioners and shall if so required by the Minister be verified by statutory declaration made by that person.

(3) If it appears to the Minister from any return made under this section or otherwise that the Commissioners have failed to appropriate and set apart any sum required to be appropriated and set apart under section 18 (Sinking fund) of this Order or have applied any portion of the sums so appropriated and set apart to a purpose other than that authorised the Minister may by order direct that such sum as is specified in the order not exceeding the amount in respect of which default has been made shall be paid or applied in the manner and by the date set out in the order and the Commissioners shall notify the Minister as soon as the order has been complied with.

(4) An order made under subsection (3) of this section may be enforced at the instance of the Minister by mandamus.

(5) If a return required to be made under this section is not made within the time specified in subsection (1) of this section the person in default shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds and notwithstanding the recovery of any such penalty the making of the return may be enforced at the instance of the Minister by mandamus.

20.—(1) The Commissioners shall within two months after the Annual date to which their annual accounts and balance sheet are made up send a copy of the same to the Minister and the sixteenth section of the General Pier and Harbour Act 1861 Amendment Act shall apply to and include the Commissioners and any and every such accounts.

(2) The Commissioners shall as from the expiration of that period be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every refusal or neglect to comply with the foregoing provisions.

(3) The accounts of the Commissioners referred to in this section and in section 50 of the Harbours Clauses Act 1847 respectively shall be made up to the end of the thirty-first day of March in each year.

21. Section 48 (Contingency fund) of the Order of 1915 shall be read and have effect as if—

(a) the words “five thousand pounds” were substituted for the words “two thousand pounds”; and

(b) the words “or any extraordinary expenses on renewals and maintenance of the works” were inserted after the word “works”;

in that section.

22. Subsection (2) of section 49 (Application of harbour revenue) of the Order of 1915 shall be read and have effect as if the word “renewal” were inserted after the word “repair” in that subsection.

23. Section 17 (Limits of harbour) of the Order of 1915 shall be read and have effect as if the words “the westernmost end of the breakwater at Mount Batten” were substituted for the words “a point on the seashore fifty-three yards or thereabouts immediately to the west of the south-western corner of the westernmost house of the coastguard station at Mount Batten to the westernmost extremity of the rock on which the Cobbler Buoy was formerly placed thence another imaginary straight line drawn " in that section.

Removal of
sunk stranded
or abandoned
vessels.

24.—(1) Whenever any vessel is sunk stranded or abandoned in any part of the harbour or in or near any approach thereto the Commissioners may if they think fit cause the vessel or any part thereof to be raised removed blown up or destroyed.

(2) The Commissioners may cause any such vessel and the furniture and tackle and apparel thereof or any part thereof respectively which shall be raised or salvaged and also all or any part of the cargo goods chattels and effects which may be raised or salvaged from any such vessel to be sold in any such manner as they may think fit and out of the proceeds of sale may reimburse themselves for the expenses incurred by them under this section and also for any expenses incurred by them in marking buoying watching lighting or otherwise controlling the vessel and shall hold the surplus (if any) of the proceeds of the sale in trust for the persons entitled thereto. Provided that the Commissioners shall before selling any such cargo goods chattels or effects as aforesaid pay all duties of customs or excise which shall be payable in respect of the cargo goods chattels or effects to be sold and they may retain the amounts of the duties of customs or excise so paid out of the proceeds arising from the sale of such cargo goods chattels or effects.

(3) If the proceeds of the sale are insufficient to reimburse the Commissioners for the aforesaid expenses and duties of customs or excise the Commissioners may recover the deficiency or in case of an appeal under subsection (4) of this section such sum as is awarded by the arbitrator to be payable in respect of the deficiency from the owner of any such vessel either summarily as a civil debt where the amount recoverable does not exceed twenty pounds or as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) If on demand being made under this section for payment of any deficiency the owner of the vessel is dissatisfied with the amount demanded he may within fourteen days after the receipt of the demand appeal to the Minister who shall appoint an arbitrator to determine and award whether any and if so what sum is payable in respect of the deficiency and the award of the arbitrator appointed by the Minister that no sum is payable or as to the sum payable as the case may be shall be conclusive and binding on both parties. The costs of the appeal and the award shall be in the absolute discretion of the arbitrator and he shall award and order how those costs are to be borne and paid and any costs so awarded and ordered to be paid by either party may be recovered by the other party in the same manner as the sum payable in respect of the deficiency is recoverable under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The Commissioners shall (except in any case which in their opinion is a case of emergency) before raising removing blowing up or destroying any vessel under the provisions of this section give to the owner of the vessel twenty-four hours' notice of their intention so to do and if within twelve hours after the expiration of such notice the owner gives to the Commissioners notice in writing of his intention himself to raise and remove the vessel he shall be at liberty to do so in lieu of the Commissioners:

Provided that if the owner gives any such notice as last aforesaid—

- (a) he shall in raising or removing the vessel comply with any directions which may from time to time be given to him by or on behalf of the Commissioners for the purpose of preventing interference with navigation; and
- (b) he shall forthwith after giving such notice commence and shall with all diligent dispatch proceed with and complete the raising or removal of the vessel; and if such raising or removal be not completed within seven days after the giving of such notice by the owner such notice shall be null and void and the Commissioners shall be at liberty to cause the vessel to be raised or removed or blown up or otherwise destroyed in accordance with the provisions of this section as if the owner had not given such notice.

(6) The Commissioners shall (except in any case which in their opinion is a case of emergency or when required by the owner to sell) before selling any vessel under the provisions of this section give to the owner seven days' notice of their intention so to do.

(7) Any notice given by the Commissioners pursuant to subsection (5) or subsection (6) of this section shall be given by delivering the same to the owner or by posting a prepaid letter addressed to the owner at the place in the United Kingdom where he carries on business or at his last known place of abode in the United Kingdom or if the owner or his place of business or abode is not known to the Commissioners then by exhibiting such notice at the principal office of the Commissioners for twenty-four hours in the case of a notice given under the said subsection (5) or for seven days in the case of a notice given under the said subsection (6).

(8) In this section the expression—

“owner” in relation to any vessel sunk stranded or abandoned as aforesaid means the owner of that vessel at the time the said expenses were incurred by the Commissioners or if there was then no owner of the vessel the owner of the vessel at the time of the sinking stranding or abandonment thereof;

“vessel” includes a seaplane and other aircraft.

(9) The powers conferred on the Commissioners by this section shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other powers exercisable by them for or with respect to the removal of wrecks.

(10) Except for the purpose of removing any obstruction to the harbour nothing in this section shall entitle the Commissioners to remove any wreck (as defined in section 510 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894) to the prejudice or in derogation of the rights with respect to such wreck of the receiver of wreck under the provisions of Part IX of the said Merchant Shipping Act and if the Commissioners shall for any such purpose as aforesaid remove any such wreck they shall (without prejudice to the rights of sale conferred upon them by the foregoing provisions of this section) hold and dispose of the same or any such surplus of the proceeds of sale thereof as is referred to in subsection (2) of this section in accordance with such directions (if any) as may be given to them by the said receiver.

(11) For the removal of doubt it is expressly provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any vessel belonging to His Majesty or held by any person on behalf of or for the benefit of the Crown nor shall any of the powers conferred by this section be exercised if by such exercise the Crown would become liable directly or indirectly otherwise than as an insurer or reinsurer under a contract of insurance or reinsurance for any expenses incurred by the Commissioners except where such consent is given as is provided for in section 25 (As to vessels in which the Crown have an interest) of this Order and the vessel was not such a vessel as aforesaid at any such time as is mentioned in subsection (8) of this section.

As to vessels in which the Crown have an interest.

25.—(1) The Commissioners shall before taking possession of raising removing blowing up or destroying any vessel sunk stranded or abandoned under the powers conferred upon them by this Order or by any other enactment give to the Admiralty and to the Minister notice in writing of their intention so to do and if within fourteen days after the receipt of such notice the Admiralty or the Minister gives to the Commissioners—

- (a) a certificate that the vessel was sunk stranded or abandoned by a person acting on behalf of His Majesty or otherwise by an officer or servant of the Crown acting in the course of his duty as such and that it is not in the national interest that the Commissioners should take possession of the vessel or that the vessel should be raised removed or blown up or destroyed ; or
- (b) a notice that the exercise by the Commissioners of the rights of recovery conferred by subsection (2) of section 24 (Removal of sunk stranded or abandoned vessels) of this Order would render the Crown liable directly or indirectly otherwise than as an insurer or reinsurer under a contract of insurance or reinsurance for all or a substantial proportion of the expense incurred by the Commissioners in pursuance of that section ;

the Commissioners shall not without the consent in writing of the authority by whom the certificate was issued or the notice given take possession of raise remove blow up or destroy such vessel :

Provided that in any case which in their opinion is a case of emergency the Commissioners may take possession of raise remove blow up or destroy any vessel without giving notice of their intention so to do to the Admiralty or to the Minister and in that event the Commissioners shall not be entitled to recover from any person the expenses incurred by them in so doing if the effect of such recovery would be to render the Crown so liable.

(2) If the Commissioners shall mark light watch buoy control or give warning to shipping of the presence of any vessel in respect of which the Admiralty or the Minister have refused their consent under subsection (1) of this section the Commissioners shall not be entitled to recover the expenses of so doing from the owner of the vessel but may apply to the Admiralty or to the Minister as the case may be for the reimbursement of the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing and the Admiralty or the Minister as the case may be may make such payment as the Treasury may determine.

26. The Orders specified in the Second Schedule to this Order are Repeals hereby repealed to the extent shown in that schedule.

27. All costs charges and expenses of and incident to the preparing and obtaining of this Order and otherwise incurred in reference thereto shall be paid by the Commissioners.
