Where necessary the ITF will also advance monies to seafarers pending the outcome and resolution of any action to be taken on their behalf. The ITF will also defend itself against certain ship owners and others who would seek to prevent it pursuing its objectives of helping seafarers. At any time the ITF has many ongoing legal cases and often these will have been active for several years. Wherever possible the ITF will seek to recover legal and other costs from ship owners.

The potential gain is decreased by management expenses.

20. Pension

The ITF operates a defined benefits pension scheme, the ITF Retirement Benefits Scheme. The scheme funds are administered by trustees and are independent of ITF's financial statements. Benefits are based on employees' final remuneration and length of service. The pension cost is assessed in line with the advice of an independent qualified actuary on the basis of an annual valuation and charged to the Statement of Income and Retained Earnings. The FRS 102 figures are based on the results of the full actuarial Statutory Funding Valuation of the scheme as at 1 January 2020 and updated to 31 December 2020 using assumptions which are consistent with the requirements of FRS 102. In order to reflect the requirements of FRS 102 separately in the General Fund and Welfare Fund the defined benefit costs and the pension scheme asset or liability have been apportioned between the funds on the basis of the estimated proportion of pension costs applicable to each fund. In 2019 £226,378 was transferred from the Welfare Fund to the General Fund to adjust for 20.75% of the pension scheme asset or liability being apportioned to the General Fund at 31 December 2018 instead of 20.0% in accordance with the accounting policy. The ITF expects to contribute approximately £4,200,000 to its defined benefit pension scheme in 2021.

At 31 December 2020 the ITF group had no future minimum rentals payable under non-cancellable operating leases of over 5 years, no finance leases and no hire purchase agreements (2019 none).

22. Capital commitment

At 31 December 2020 the ITF group and ITF parent had capital commitments of £563,000 all of which related to a planned refurbishment of the office space in ITF House, the London headquarters of the ITF (2019 £3,236,000).

23. Contingent liability

The 2011 ITF group and ITF parent balance sheet contained a liability of £4,094,000 for crew back pay and compensation awaiting distribution, plus an associated liability of £1,900,000 provision for interest on back pay. The source of the funds was unclaimed back pay recovered on behalf of seafarers and many of the balances dated back decades. Following a technical review of the balances the ITF believes that it was holding the balances as an agent on behalf of the seafarers and that the liability for the back pay and corresponding cash balances should not appear in the ITF group's and ITF parent's Statement of Financial Position. However, the ITF acknowledges an ongoing contingent liability to pay out a back pay claim plus interest to any seafarer or their dependent who can establish a reasonable case to show that funds had been received on their behalf by the ITF.

24. Related party transactions

ITF receives affiliation fee income from affiliated unions. The ITF Executive Board members are elected at Congress, are made up of representatives from affiliated unions, and are unpaid except for expenses. Some affiliated unions are reimbursed for expenditure, including inspectorate expenditure.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. Accounting policies

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, and are in accordance with applicable accounting standards including FRS 102. The group financial statements consolidate the financial statements of the ITF and all its subsidiary undertakings drawn up to 31 December 2020. These financial statements are presented in pounds sterling (GBP) and are rounded to the nearest thousand pounds. The following principal accounting policies have been applied:

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the organisation, and the entities where ITF is a controlling member of the entity or where ITF has financial and operational control of the entity. Control is achieved where the group has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The results of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statements of income and retained earnings from the effective date of acquisition and up to the effective date of disposal, as appropriate using accounting policies consistent with those of the parent. All intra-group transactions, balances, income and expenses are eliminated in full on consolidation.

(b) Going concern

The financial statements are drawn up on a going concern basis, which assumes ITF will continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Due consideration has been given to the working capital and cash flow requirements of ITF for at least 12 months from the date of signature of the accounts. The ITF's reserves policy is to maintain sufficient funds in the Welfare Fund that, should there be a significant downturn in the finances of the ITF, would cover 4 years operational expenditure for the Dockers, Fisheries, Inland Navigation, Inspectorate, Seafarers and Special Seafarers Department sections.

(c) Foreign currency

Foreign currency transactions are translated into Sterling at the rates ruling when they occur. Foreign currency assets and liabilities are translated into Sterling at the rates of exchange at the statement of financial position date, and any differences are shown in the statement of income and retained earnings.

(d) Key judgements, risks and uncertainties

In preparing these financial statements to conform to UK Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, and by applying the ITF's accounting policies, management are required to use judgements in applying estimates and assumptions which affect the reported amounts. The items in the financial statements where these judgements and estimates have been made include:

- Welfare contributions and crew membership fees income, where management accrues 85% of unallocated receipts because this is its best estimate based on knowledge and past behaviour.
- ITF rebate to the IBF Seafarers' Support Fund, where management makes a best estimate of the liability based on the information available at the end of the financial year. Records are constantly updated so that when claims are received these might result in an under or over-accrual.

- Bad debt, where management assesses what it considers is not recoverable and makes a provision for this.
- Defined benefits contributory pension scheme, where management engage with an actuary, and valuations of the pension scheme are based on estimates provided by the actuary. In applying this to the funds, then it is judgement of management that 20% of the defined benefits pension asset or liability is attributable to the General Fund and the remainder to the Welfare Fund. For more details see note 20 to the financial statements.

In preparing these financial statements, management have considered the uncertainty and economic environment as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, and still consider it appropriate to draw up financial statements on a going concern basis, as noted in (b) above. Management considers that the ITF has sufficient reserves to mitigate any short-term loss of income or increase in expenditure.

(e) Affiliation fees income

Affiliation fees are accounted for on a receivable basis. The ITF's constitution allows affiliates in certain circumstances to request that their annual fee be calculated at concessionary rates, and this procedure has been applied during 2020. The total amount of affiliation fees receivable shown in the statement of income and retained earnings does not therefore represent the total amount due on declared membership calculated at the standard affiliation fee rate.

(f) Welfare contributions and crew membership fees income

On signing an ITF agreement with an ITF affiliate, a ship owner: undertakes to make a yearly welfare contribution per head in advance; if appropriate, arranges for the crew to become members of the Special Seafarers' Department; and remits the appropriate membership fees on their behalf. Such contributions and fees are voluntary and are paid directly by the ship owners or collected by affiliated unions. In view of the uncertainty associated with the receipt of the income, it is recognised when received and matched to an ITF special agreement.

(g) Interest and dividends income

Interest on fixed interest investments is accrued on a receivable basis. Dividends on equities are recognised when receivable.

(h) Other income

Other income is recognised on a receivable basis.

(i) Administration charge

A proportion of the General Fund's employment and other administration costs have been charged to the Seafarers' International Assistance, Welfare and Protection Fund and the ITF Seafarers' Trust, over and above directly incurred expenditure, to reflect the activity carried out on their behalf by employees paid from the General Fund.

(j) Donations to ITF Seafarers' Trust under Gift aid

When donated to a third party, gift aid is treated as a donation cost.

(k) Current and deferred taxation

For United Kingdom taxation purposes, the ITF is treated as an unincorporated association and assessed for corporation tax on both its investment income and any net gains on the disposal of investments. The ITF mitigates its taxable income by way of a donation under gift aid to the ITF Seafarers' Trust, a registered charity in England and Wales, number 281936. Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all material timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the Statement of Financial Position date. Timing differences are differences between the ITF's taxable profit and its results as stated in the financial statements, that arise from inclusion of gains and losses in tax assessments in periods different from those in which they are recognised in the financial statements.

(I) Pension scheme

The ITF operates a defined benefits contributory pension scheme that is open to all UK based employees of the ITF. The pension scheme is independent of the ITF and is administered by trustees. Pension scheme costs, assets and liabilities are reflected in these financial statements in accordance with FRS 102. As noted in (d) above, pension scheme assets and liabilities are apportioned 20% to the General Fund and the remainder to the Welfare Fund. For more details see note 20 to the financial statements.

(m) Tangible fixed assets and depreciation

Tangible fixed assets, including land and buildings, are included in the financial statements at cost. Additions over £10,000 are capitalised. Tangible fixed assets are fully depreciated on a straight-line basis, where land and buildings are depreciated over 50 years, furniture and equipment over 3 to 10 years, computer systems over 3 years and motor vehicles over 3 years.

(n) Investments

Investments are stated at fair value. Unrealised and realised investment gains and losses are shown in the statement of income and retained earnings. Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment in the individual financial statements.

(o) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and balances with banks. Where applicable, cash and cash equivalents are revalued based on the relevant exchange rates at the reporting date.

(p) Operating leases

Annual rentals are charged to operating profit on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(q) Provision for liabilities and charges

Provisions are recognised when the ITF has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the ITF will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. The amount recognised is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. The ITF recognises a provision for annual leave accrued by employees as a result of services rendered in the current period, and which employees are entitled to carry forward and use within the next 12 months, and the provision is measured at the salary cost payable for the period of absence.

(r) Financial Instruments

The ITF only has financial assets and financial liabilities that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value, representing amortised cost as follows: cash is measured on initial recognition at value of cash held; debtors are measured on initial recognition at value of settlement amount after any trade discounts; creditors are measured on initial recognition at value of settlement amount after any trade discounts (assuming normal credit terms apply); and investments (non-putable unit trusts, i.e. without an option to sell the shares at a later date at an agreed price) are measured on initial recognition at value of transaction price (cost).

Independent Auditor's Report to the International Transport Workers' Federation

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the Union's affairs as at 31 December 2020 and of its result for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.

We have audited the financial statements of the International Transport Workers' Federation (the 'Union') for the year ended 31 December 2020 which comprise the Group Statement of Income and Retained Earnings, the Group Statement of Financial Position, Group Statement of Cash Flows, Parent Organisation Statement of Financial Position and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Union in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the Executive Board's use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the Union's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the Executive Board with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The Executive Board is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Executive Board Report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters to which the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- proper accounting records have not been kept in accordance with the requirements; or
- the Union has not maintained a satisfactory system of controls over its transactions in accordance with the requirements; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of the Executive Board

As explained more fully in the Statement of Executive Board Members' Responsibilities, the Executive Board is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the Executive Board determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Executive Board is responsible for assessing the Union's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Executive Board either intend to liquidate the Union or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Extent to which the audit was capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

• As part of designing our audit, we determined materiality and assessed the risks of material misstatement in the financial statements, including how fraud may occur by enquiring of management of its own consideration of fraud. In particular, we looked at where management made subjective judgements, for example in respect of significant accounting estimates that involved making assumptions and considering future events that are inherently uncertain. We also considered potential financial or other pressures, opportunity and motivations for fraud. As part of this discussion we identified the internal controls established to mitigate risks related to fraud or non-compliance with laws and regulations and how management monitor these processes.

International Transport Workers' Federation

Appropriate procedures included the review and testing of manual journals and key estimates and judgements made by management.

- We gained an understanding of the legal and regulatory framework applicable to the Union and the industry in which it operates, drawing on our broad sector experience, and considered the risk of acts by the Union that were contrary to these laws and regulations, including fraud.
- We focused on laws and regulations that could give rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements, including, but not limited to, the Trade Union & Labour Relations Act 1992, UK tax legislation and equivalent local laws and regulations.
- We made enquiries of management with regards to compliance with the above laws and regulations and corroborated any necessary evidence to relevant information, for example, minutes of Executive Board meetings, confirmations received from solicitors and any other relevant correspondence.
- Our tests included agreeing the financial statements disclosures to underlying supporting documentation and enquiries with management.

We did not identify any key audit matters relating to irregularities, including fraud. As in all of our audits, we also addressed the risk of management override of internal controls including testing journals and evaluation whether there was evidence of bias by the directors that represented a risk of material misstatement due to fraud.

Our audit procedures were designed to respond to risks of material misstatement in the financial statements, recognising that the risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery, misrepresentations or through collusion. There are inherent limitations in the audit procedures performed and the further removed non-compliance with laws and regulations is from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, the less likely we are to become aware of it.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Councils website at: www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the International Transport Workers' Federation, as a body, in accordance with the provisions of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the Union those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Union as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.
