

FOI Release
Information released under the Freedom of Information Act

Title: Average time between filing Design invalidity action and decision

Date of release: 28 May 2019

Information request:

The average time frame in the last 12 months for a decision invalidity action to take from the date the action is filed to the date the (first instance) decision is received.

UK Designs only. Last 12 months only.

Information released:

The average length between serving the DF19B and issue of the Design decision was 9 months [as at May 2019].