

29,093 cases were dealt with by conviction or diversion in the justice system, with 7,805 of these being first offences (26.8%)

18 - 24 year olds make up just over a quarter (26.6%) of first time entrants

2019/20 at a glance

First offences in the drugs, possession of weapons and public order categories were mostly dealt with by diversion

First offences in the motoring, burglary and sexual categories were mostly dealt with by conviction

22.3%

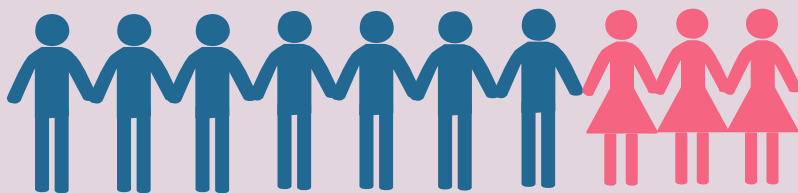

22.3% of all convictions were for first offences

Motoring offences accounted for 55.2% of all first time entrants

70.8% of first time entrants were male

29.2% were female

56.6% of first offences resulted in Monetary penalties

2.6% of first offences resulted in Imprisonment

*Figures for Males also include organisations, transgender and gender not specified.

2019/20 compared to previous year

Number of first time offenders

1.5% lower

First time offenders as a proportion of all offenders

0.4% lower

