THE PRIME MINISTER

7 July 2021

Dear James,

Thank you for your letter this morning, tendering your resignation as Minister of State for Security at the Home Office. While I am very sorry that you now need to step back from your public duties, I fully support your decision to focus on your recovery.

You should be immensely proud of what you have achieved in this Government - not just in the Home Office, but also in the Ministry for Housing, Communities and Local Government and the Northern Ireland Office. In all your roles you have shown tireless dedication to improving the lives of others, particularly addressing some of the most challenging issues that face us as a country.

I understand entirely your need to step down from your role but look forward to welcoming you back as soon as possible.

with my best wishes for a speedy return to full health!

Yours ever,
Rishi

The Right Honourable James Brokenshire MP
