

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr A Lewis

Respondent: London Fire Commissioner

UPON APPLICATION made by email dated 15 October 2020 to reconsider the judgment dated 28 August 2020 under rule 71 of the Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013, and without a hearing.

JUDGMENT

Claimants application for review of the Judgement is refused.

Reasons

On 15 October 2020, the Claimant made a timeous application for reconsideration under Rule 71 of the Employment Tribunal Rules of Procedure 2013 of the Deposit Order sent to the parties on 2 October 2020. I have considered the grounds of the application and conclude that it is not necessary to reconsider the Order in the interests of justice.

The application expands upon points made, or which could have been made, by the Claimant at the hearing at which the Deposit Order was made. The fact that the Claimant does not agree with the assessment of the merits of the claims subject to the Deposit Order is not a sufficient ground for reconsideration. Finality in litigation is an important principle; reconsideration is not an opportunity for a “second bite of the cherry”.

None of the matters raised by the Claimant are such that they would give any reasonable prospect of original decision being varied or revoked. Accordingly, the application for a reconsideration is refused under rules 70 and 72.
