Hi [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email.

I have sent over a diary invitation to both Sara and Joel.

The locations is yet to be confirmed but it will most likely be in the Ministers Defra Office in Westminster, London.

Best wishes,

Dear Joel,

Thank you for your email.

The Minister would be delighted to meet with you and Sara and hear all about the amazing work that you have been doing.

Would you both be available to meet with him on the morning of 30th January at 9:30?

If this time is not convenient, please let me know and I will find another time for you all to meet.

Best wishes,

[REDACTED]

Dear Zac

First and foremost, I hope that you had a great Christmas and a happy New Year.

I also wanted to congratulate you on your richly deserved Peerage, which is a wonderful achievement.

I hope that you will not mind me saying that your father will be looking down with enormous pride!

Further to communication with Sara before Christmas, I am pleased (but not at all surprised) to tell you that she is doing an incredible job at The Tree Council and has already managed to quadruple their turnover in her first year of Office!

At a convenient moment for you, it would be great if the three of us could sit down together to discuss ongoing plans...if you would be happy to do so?

All very best

Joel
