

Don't get your family locked down when you're let out

Your COVID-19 vaccines are waiting for you. Don't wait until you're released to have both doses

More variants of COVID-19 are circulating. People in prisons and other secure settings are still at risk of catching and passing on the COVID-19 infection.

The vaccines give you the best protection, protecting you and helping to protect your family, friends and visitors.

Speak to your healthcare team today