

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr M Grabowski

Respondent: DNATA Limited

JUDGMENT

The claim is struck out.

REASONS

1. By an order made on the 4 March 2021 the claim was stayed for 28 days and made an order as follows:

UNLESS by the 1 April 2021 the claimant sends to the employment tribunal, and copies to the respondent the following:

- (i) A witness statement setting out the basis of his case and providing copies of any documents in his possession or control on which he will rely;
- (ii) An explanation for his failure to engage in and actively pursue the proceedings so far;
- (iii) If the claimant wishes to rely on any medical condition as explaining why he failed to engage in or actively pursue the proceedings he should provide a report/letter or other evidence from a medical practitioner explaining his condition and expressing an opinion on whether the claimant is or will be able to conduct the proceedings, providing if appropriate a prognosis;

The claim will be struck out without the need for any further hearing.

2. The claimant has failed to comply with the order or make representations in writing, why this order could not be complied with. The claim is therefore struck out.
