

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant

Mrs R Simolkiniene

v

Respondent

Lorraine Persaud

Heard at: Cambridge (by CVP)

On: 28 May 2021

Before: Employment Judge Cassel

Appearances

For the Claimant: Mr Chris May

For the Respondent: No appearance.

JUDGMENT

1. The respondent is to pay to the claimant the sum of £1710 for unpaid wages and £514.70 for unpaid holiday pay. The total payable is £2224.70.
2. The sums payable are gross and the respondent is to account to the claimant and HMRC for any tax and national insurance payable thereon.

REASONS

1. In her claim form to the tribunal the claimant brings claims of unpaid wages and a failure to pay accrued holiday pay on the termination of her employment.
2. No appearance was entered by the respondent and on 28 October 2020 Employment Judge Ord entered judgment in favour of the claimant on the two complaints.
3. The hearing was listed for today for remedy. The claimant was represented by Mr Chris May and the respondent did not attend nor was represented.
4. Evidence was given by the claimant that the contents of her claim form were correct and that she was owed for unpaid wages 171 hours worked at £10 per hour making a total of £1710. She also showed calculations of her holiday pay entitlement which amounted to 21.5 days and was payable at £514.

5. The respondent is to pay to the claimant a total of £2224.70.
6. The sums are gross amounts on which tax and national insurance is payable.
7. The recoupment provisions do not apply.
