I would like to request the following information.

Please list the total number of crimes that were screened out or closed without investigation on the same day that they were reported. By 'screened out' I mean cases where a crime reference was issued but no subsequent investigation or follow-up was ever carried out. This can be after an initial/primary assessment to identify those that are more likely to be solvable.

Please provide a breakdown by alleged crime and reason for closure if available.

Please provide data for 2018, 2019 and 2020

Please provide a breakdown by calendar year.

I am writing to request information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

It is regarding Domestic Violence Protection Orders (DVPOs) and Domestic Violence Protection Notices (DVPNs). Definitions below and in full here: https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/575363/DVPO_guidance_FINAL_3.pdf

"DVPOs are a civil order that fills a "gap" in providing protection to victims by enabling the police and magistrates' courts to put in place protective measures in the immediate aftermath of a domestic violence incident where there is insufficient evidence to charge a perpetrator and provide protection to a victim via bail conditions.

DVPN is an emergency non-molestation and eviction notice which can be issued by the police, when attending to a domestic abuse incident, to a perpetrator. A DVPO can prevent the perpetrator from returning to a residence and from having contact with the victim for up to 28 days. This allows the victim a degree of breathing space to consider their options with the help of a support agency. Both the DVPN and DVPO contain a condition prohibiting the perpetrator from molesting the victim."

Questions:

1: How many Domestic Violence Protection Orders (DVPOs) were broken during 2018, 2019 & 2020?

2. How many Domestic Violence Protection Notices (DVPNs) were broken during 2018, 2019 & 2020?

Please could I have the total information broken down separately for each year?

I am writing to request the following information under the 2000 Freedom of Information Act. This information relates to allegations made against officers or members of staff within your force, and disciplinary action taken against them, for failing to uphold professional standards when conducting rape investigations.

1a) How many allegations against officers or members of staff within your force have been made for:

- i) failing to record a victim's allegation of rape on the Police system
- ii) failing to "adequately" investigate the allegation of rape, or conduct "sufficient" investigations into the allegation
- iii) failing to take appropriate action to safeguard the alleged victim from future harm from the alleged perpetrator

in the years 2018, 2019, 2020 and from the beginning of 2021 to the present day? Please could you provide this information broken down by calendar year.

Please note: for guidance on terms such as "adequately" and "sufficient", I refer to definitions outlined in your force's Standards of Professional Behaviour relating to rape allegations; investigating rape allegations and safeguarding victims of rape, and any appropriate code of conduct.

2a) How many officers or members of staff within your force have been disciplined AND/OR dismissed for:

- i) failing to record a victim's allegation of rape on the Police system
- ii) failing to "adequately" investigate the allegation of rape, or "conduct sufficient investigations" into the allegation
- iii) failing to take appropriate action to safeguard the alleged victim from future harm from the alleged perpetrator?

in the years 2018, 2019, 2020 and from the beginning of 2021 to the present day? Please could you provide this information broken down by calendar year and by whether the action taken was disciplinary or dismissal.

2b) For each disciplinary AND/OR dismissal, please could you provide any further details of the actions that led to the officer/staff member's disciplinary AND/OR dismissal, and details of the nature of the disciplinary action e.g. final written warning.

I am a PhD student at London Kingston University researching decision making in forensic contexts under the supervision of Dr Delphine Theobald. One of my studies proposes the use of video clips to facilitate questions about what decisions the public would make in decision making situations from arrest to detention. Having watched Police training videos freely available online I am confident that some video clips will be relevant to situations like the below for research purposes (requirements to be specified in greater detail if such a request can be fulfilled):

- Police officer tries to stop (saying something like "stop") a person to arrest them and the person tries to avoid arrest (by running away)
- Police officer tries to stop a person to arrest them and the person tries to avoid arrest by being violent (e.g. pushing, kicking etc)
- The police officer gives the police caution on the spot after they have arrested someone and they ask the suspect if they understand (the caution)

- The police officer hands the suspect to the custody Officer at the police station. The custody officer offer the suspect to read the leaflet (notice of rights and entitlements)
- At the Police station the custody officer offers the suspect to read the PACE code
- At the police station the custody officer asks the suspect if they would like to call a solicitor
- At the police station the custody officer asks the suspect if they would like to call a duty solicitor or their own solicitor
- At the police station the custody officer gives the police caution and asks if the suspect understands it
- At the police station the custody officer explains the caution to the suspect

I am writing to request the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

1. On how many mobile phones has mobile phone data extraction technology been used in criminal investigations between 01/01/2019 and the present day (15/06/2021)?

Please provide a breakdown by:

- a. Serious crimes
- b. All other crimes

Please could you also provide a breakdown by year.

Note: "Serious crime" is defined in section 93(4) of the Police Act 1997 as: Conduct which (a) involves the use of violence, results in substantial financial gain or is conducted by a large number of persons in pursuit of a common purpose or (b) the offence or one of the offences is an offence for which a person who has attained the age of twenty-one and has no previous convictions could reasonably be expected to be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of three years or more.

By 'mobile phone data extraction technology and/or software', I refer to the hardware and/or software used by the force to conduct such digital searches, which can include the extraction of pictures, text messages and information on the Cloud. Examples of such technology include Cellebrite kiosks or MSAB XRY software, allowing the force to access information on a suspect/witness' device, as per the definition of digital forensics laid out by the NPCC and College of Policing's definition: Digital forensics is the process by which information is extracted from data storage media (eg, devices, remote storage and systems associated with computing, imaging, image comparison, video processing and enhancement [including CCTV], audio analysis, satellite navigation, communications), rendered into a useable form, processed and interpreted for the purpose of obtaining intelligence for use in investigations, or evidence for use in criminal proceedings.

2. a) How many police officers have been disciplined AND/OR dismissed for their use of mobile phone data extraction technology between 01/01/2019 and the present day (15/06/2021)?

Please could you provide a breakdown by:

- i) Year
 - ii) Whether the officer was disciplined or dismissed
- b) Please could you also provide details of the officer's actions that led to the dismissal i.e. if they had misused mobile phone extraction technology for personal gain, passed on private information, failed to retain information safely, etc.

3. Please could I have a copy of any Police Crime Commissioner (PCC) reports AND/OR Tactical Assessments AND/OR internal reports produced relating to the force's use of mobile phone data extraction technology between 01/01/2019 and the present day (15/06/2021).
