2020 -2021 was an unprecedented year for the world let alone MAPPA Gloucestershire with the National Lockdown called on the 18th March 2020 and impacting all aspects of life for over 12 months. MAPPA Gloucestershire has been able to maintain a high level of service with a swift and pragmatic response and utilisation of technology. As incoming Chair of the Strategic Management Board (SMB), I was pleased to oversee the implementation of a three-year Business Plan which allows us to exercise greater levels of ambition and oversight.

The purpose of this report is to provide information about the work of MAPPA in Gloucestershire and offer reassurance to the public that appropriate processes are in place to collaboratively manage the most complex cases in our communities. We do not report on individual cases nor comment on the specific actions of individual agencies, but we do aim to provide a flavour of the work carried out locally under the MAPPA framework.

MAPPA in Gloucestershire is overseen by the SMB, which includes senior representatives from Gloucestershire Constabulary, Her Majesty's Prison Service and the Probation Service (the Responsible Authority), as well as Adult Safeguarding, Adult Social Care, Children's Social Care, the Department for Work & Pensions, Gloucester City Homes, the Local Authority Housing Department, the Office of the Police & Crime Commissioner, the Youth Offending Service and Gloucestershire Health and Care NHS Foundation Trust (representing all of Health) (the Duty to Cooperate Agencies). The Board is completed by our MAPPA Coordinator and two Lay Advisers.

The role of the SMB is to manage the quality and effectiveness of MAPPA locally, ensuring that each of the agencies involved discharge their duties to protect the public under the MAPPA framework. The aims of the SMB in Gloucestershire remain unchanged from previous years.

They are:

- To ensure that victims remain at the centre of local MAPPA arrangements
- To maintain effective multi-agency arrangements to manage the risks posed by sexual and violent offenders
- To ensure that information is shared in order that the public are protected
- To make improvements where weaknesses are identified
- To ensure that local MAPPA arrangements are transparent and accountable

The delivery of these aims requires commitment from partners at both strategic and operational level. Since my arrival as MAPPA Chair, I have witnessed close working relationships across a range of agencies in Gloucestershire which has created a culture where challenge is welcome and continuous improvement is monitored. As Chair of the SMB I am keen to develop our practice and review local processes, ensuring that we seek opportunities to review our practice particularly where areas for improvement have been identified. To this end I am delighted that a process is now in place for multi-agency audits of meetings and the outcomes of these will drive improvements.

Finally, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all the partnership agencies for their contribution to MAPPA in Gloucestershire over what has been a singularly unique and challenging last year.

Assistant Chief Constable Craig Holden

MAPPA background

MAPPA (Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements) are a set of arrangements to manage the risk posed by the most serious sexual, violent and terrorist offenders (MAPPA-eligible offenders) under the provisions of sections 325 to 327B of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.

They bring together the Police, Probation and Prison Services in each of the 42 Areas in England and Wales into what is known as the MAPPA Responsible Authority.

A number of other agencies are under a Duty to Co-operate (DTC) with the Responsible Authority. These include Social Services, Health Services, Youth Offending Teams, Jobcentre Plus and Local Housing and Education Authorities.

Local Strategic Management Boards comprising senior representatives from each of the Responsible Authority and DTC agencies are responsible for delivering MAPPA with their respective areas. The Responsible Authority is also required to appoint two Lay Advisers to sit on each MAPPA area Strategic Management Board (SMB).

Lay Advisers are members of the public appointed by the Minister with no links to the business of managing MAPPA offenders who act as independent, yet informed, observers; able to pose questions which the professionals closely involved in the work might not think of asking. They also bring to the SMB their understanding and perspective of the local community (where they must reside and have strong links).

How MAPPA works

MAPPA-eligible offenders are identified and information about them is shared between agencies to inform the risk assessments and risk management plans of those managing or supervising them.

That is as far as MAPPA extend in the majority of cases, but some cases require more senior oversight and structured multi-agency management. In such cases there will be regular MAPPA meetings attended by relevant agency practitioners.

There are 3 categories of MAPPA-eligible offender:

- Category 1 - registered sexual offenders;
- Category 2 – mainly violent offenders sentenced to 12 months or more imprisonment or a hospital order; and
- Category 3 – offenders who do not qualify under categories 1 or 2 but who currently pose a risk of serious harm.

There are three levels of management to ensure that resources are focused where they are most needed; generally those presenting the higher risks of serious harm.

- Level 1 is where the offender is managed by the lead agency with information exchange and multi-agency support as required but without formal MAPPA meetings;
- Level 2 is where formal MAPPA meetings are required to manage the offender.
- Level 3 is where risk management plans require the attendance and commitment of resources at a senior level at MAPPA meetings.

MAPPA are supported by ViSOR. This is a national IT system to assist in the management of offenders who pose a serious risk of harm to the public. The use of ViSOR increases the ability to share intelligence across organisations and enables the safe transfer of key information when high risk offenders move, enhancing public protection measures. ViSOR allows staff from the Police, Probation and Prison Services to work on the same IT system for the first time, improving the quality and timeliness of risk assessments and interventions to prevent offending.

MAPPA and Terrorism

In response to the terrorist attack committed by Usman Khan at Fishmongers' Hall on 29 November 2019, the Home Secretary and the Lord Chancellor commissioned Jonathan Hall QC, who is the Independent Reviewer of Terrorism Legislation, to undertake a review of MAPPA and the management of known terrorists and other extremist offenders (TACT Offenders). The terrorist attack committed by Sudesh Amman in Streatham High Road on 2 February 2020 served to reinforce the need for the review, since both Khan and Amman had been managed under MAPPA. The government published the report on 2 September 2020 and published a response to it on 9 December. Both documents are available at <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/multi-agency-public-protection-arrangements-review>. The report made a number of recommendations, several of which have been or are being implemented via the Counter-Terrorism and Sentencing Act 2021 and the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill. Others have already been introduced by the creation of the National Security Division (NSD) in the Probation Service to manage terrorist offenders. The Secretary of State has also revised the statutory MAPPA Guidance on terrorist offenders.

The Probation Service, via the NSD, has created a specialist dedicated and highly skilled workforce, which provides an enhanced level of management and intervention for the most high-risk, complex and high-profile offenders in the community. This will include the management of terrorist connected and terrorist risk offenders. Five Probation Service national security units have been established across England & Wales during 2020/21. The NSD and Counter-Terrorism Policing will be working closely with local Strategic Management Boards to ensure the robust management of terrorism cases. The NSD also manages serious organised crime and the most high risk and high profile public protection cases.

MAPPA background

The totals of MAPPA-eligible offenders, broken down by category, reflect the picture on 31 March 2021 (i.e. they are a snapshot). The rest of the data covers the period 1 April 2020 to 31 March 2021.

(a) MAPPA-eligible offenders – there are a number of offenders defined in law as eligible for MAPPA management, because they have committed specified sexual and violent offences or they currently pose a risk of serious harm, although the majority are actually managed at Level 1 without formal MAPPA meetings. These figures only include those MAPPA eligible offenders living in the community. They do not include those in prison or detained under the Mental Health Act.

(b) Registered Sexual Offenders (RSOs) – those who are required to notify the police of their name, address and other personal details and to notify of any subsequent changes (this is known as the “notification requirement.”) These offenders are assessed and managed by the police. They may also be managed by probation or health services if they are subject to licence or a hospital order. Failure to comply with the notification requirement is a criminal offence that carries a maximum penalty of 5 years’ imprisonment.

(c) Violent Offenders – this category includes violent and terrorist offenders sentenced to imprisonment or detention for 12 months or more, or detained under a hospital order. It also includes a small number of sexual offenders who do not qualify for registration. These offenders are assessed and managed by the Probation Service, Youth Offending Team or Mental Health Services.

(d) Other Dangerous Offenders – offenders who do not qualify under the other two MAPPA-eligible categories, but who currently pose a risk of serious harm which requires management via MAPPA meetings. These offenders are assessed and managed by whichever agency has the primary responsibility for them.

(e) Breach of licence – offenders released into the community following a period of imprisonment will be subject to a licence with conditions (under probation supervision). If these conditions are not complied with, breach action will be taken and the offender may be recalled to prison.

(f) Sexual Harm Prevention Order (SHPO) (including any additional foreign travel restriction). Sexual Harm Prevention Orders (SHPOs) and interim SHPOs replaced Sexual Offence Prevention Orders. They are intended to protect the public from offenders convicted of a sexual or violent offence who pose a risk of sexual harm to the public by placing restrictions on their behaviour. They require the offender to notify their details to the police (as set out in Part 2 of the 2003 Act) for the duration of the order.

The court must be satisfied that an order is necessary to protect the public (or any particular members of the public) in the UK, or children or vulnerable adults (or any particular children or vulnerable adults) abroad, from sexual harm from the offender. In the case of an order made on a free standing application by a chief officer or the National Crime Agency (NCA), the chief officer/NCA must be able to show that the offender has acted in such a way since their conviction as to make the order necessary.

The minimum duration for a full order is five years. The lower age limit is 10, which is the age of criminal responsibility, but where the defendant is under the age of 18 an application for an order should only be considered exceptionally.

(g) Notification Order – this requires sexual offenders who have been convicted overseas to register with the police, in order to protect the public in the UK from the risks that they pose. The police may apply to the court for a notification order in relation to offenders who are already in the UK or are intending to come to the UK.

(h) Sexual Risk Order (including any additional foreign travel restriction)

The Sexual Risk Order (SRO) replaced the Risk of Sexual Harm Order (RoSHO) and may be made in relation to a person without a conviction for a sexual or violent offence (or any other offence), but who poses a risk of sexual harm.

The SRO may be made at the magistrates' court on application by the police or NCA where an individual has committed an act of a sexual nature and the court is satisfied that the person poses a risk of harm to the public in the UK or children or vulnerable adults overseas.

A SRO may prohibit the person from doing anything described in it, including travel overseas. Any prohibition must be necessary to protect the public in the UK from sexual harm or, in relation to foreign travel, protecting children or vulnerable adults from sexual harm.

An individual subject to an SRO is required to notify the police of their name and home address within three days of the order being made and also to notify any changes to this information within three days.

A SRO can last for a minimum of two years and has no maximum duration, with the exception of any foreign travel restrictions which, if applicable, last for a maximum of five years (but may be renewed).

The criminal standard of proof continues to apply. The person concerned is able to appeal against the making of the order and the police or the person concerned are able to apply for the order to be varied, renewed or discharged.

A breach of a SRO is a criminal offence punishable by a maximum of five years' imprisonment. Where an individual breaches their SRO, they will become subject to full notification requirements.

Individuals made subject of a SRO are now recorded on VISOR as a Potentially Dangerous Person (PDP).

(i) Lifetime notification requirements revoked on application

A legal challenge in 2010 and a corresponding legislative response means there is now a mechanism in place that allows qualifying sex offenders to apply for a review of their notification requirements. Persons do not come off the register automatically. Qualifying offenders may submit an application to the police to review their indefinite notification requirements. The police review the application and decide whether to revoke the notification requirements. This decision is made at the rank of Superintendent. Those who continue to pose a significant risk will remain on the register for life, if necessary.

Individuals will only become eligible to seek a review once they have been subject to indefinite notification requirements for a period of at least 15 years for adults and 8 years for juveniles. This applied from 1 September 2012 for adult offenders.

I took post in March 2020, just in time for the pandemic to take full effect. This presented a set of opportunities for us to embrace technology to advance our inclusivity at meetings. We encountered and solved issues in live time and ensured that MAPPA Meetings continued unabated throughout the lockdowns.

We have reverted to the Co-Ordinator chairing all the Level 2 meetings; this has allowed stretched Senior Probation Officers to focus on operational work and wellbeing during the Pandemic. This has had the added benefit of allowing a continuity of Chair for meetings meaning retained knowledge which has added value to the progression of the cases.

Using the newfound abilities of our technology the Unit has delivered training to General Practitioners; DWP and other agencies. We began recording presentations that could be agency specific and used as part of their inhouse training meaning content on MAPPA can be accessed at any time and is easily updated and refreshed.

I have been, as previous Co-Ordinator's commented, deeply impressed by the focus, knowledge and commitment of Standing Panel members who have worked hard in difficult times. Multiagency work is dependent on these trusting relationships and the group is unafraid of challenging one another with a view to the best outcome for MAPPA nominal and victims. The group decided to focus on protected characteristics and responsivity and it is hoped that multi-agency audits scheduled for the subsequent business year will evidence this is embedded in the meetings.

I continue to work closely with my colleague in Wiltshire who has been a constant support throughout my first year in post and I would take this opportunity to extend my thanks to her and my unceasingly patient MAPPA Administrator. I look forward to the year to come and a return to a new normal.
